The Terra Cotta Cookie Company

In the cookie business, ingredients that are not in your products can be just as important as the ones that are — especially if they are for sale in Ontario schools.

The Terra Cotta Cookie Company of Georgetown has built a strong reputation over the last 28 years for providing nutritious, high-quality snacks. But they faced a challenge recently when the Ontario government set new ingredient standards for food sold in schools.

"We keep feeding the generations, but the cookies have to change," said owner Pat Coe. "Not all cookies are created equal."
