IN MEMORIAM

BROWN, Robert Alfred (Bob)
February 26th, 1932 - April 23rd, 2008

Remembering our wonderful Husband, Dad and Grandpa

Remember him with a smile today,
He wasn't one for tears;
Reflect instead on memories
Of all the happy years.

Recall to mind the way he spoke,
Of all the things he said;
His strengths, his jokes,
The way he laughed,
Remember these instead.

The years we had with him
Are worth their weight in gold;
The joy and laughter that he gave to us
Are ours to have and hold.

He was someone very special,
He can never be replaced;
His memory in our daily lives
Can never be erased.

He had a smile for everyone,
A generous heart of gold;
To everyone who knew him
His memory will never grow old.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal;
Love leaves a memory no one can steal.

*Missed and loved beyond all telling;
by wife Sylvia, children Susan and Stephen,
Wayne and Donna, Christine and Les,
grandchildren Christopher, Brent, Anna,
Emily, Cassandra, Thomas, Robert,
Caroline, Joseph, Peter*

BOTZ, Klaus
May 30th, 1950 - April 25th, 2010

We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name,
What would we give to hear your voice,
And see you face again.

*Always loved and sadly missed
Irene, Aaron, Trevor and Mom*

CROWHURST, Kathleen (Molly) - In loving memory of a dear Mom, Grandma and Great Grandma, who passed away seven years ago on April 23rd, 2005.

Too dearly loved to ever be forgotten.

Theatre groups garner Theas and nominations

By ROXANNE THORTON
Georgetown Little Theatre

Last Saturday, April 14th, more than 500 actors, directors, members of casts and crews came to Concord to recognize their very best at the prestigious ACT-CO (The Association for Community Theatres -Central Ontario) Gala—the Academy Awards for community theatres.

Competition was fierce among the 45 production entries. Everyone sat anxiously hoping their showcase masterpiece would possibly garnish them a coveted nomination or even win them the "Thea".

Halton Hills did very well in their respective categories. Not only did they bring home the "gold" but they reaped many nominations as well.

In the Musical category Globe's Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat won best sound and lighting— Geoff Nantes; best costumes— Mary Udell.

Other nominations included: choreography, Renee Beiforte and JQ Smith; musical direction, John Pugh; and set design, Doug Feggans.

In comedy, Georgetown Little Theatre's The Lion in Winter brought home two Theas and
