Broken-hearted Trooper leaves a legacy for UCHS animals

UCHS. For those who were there at the time of his rescue we will never forget him, to the vet that saved him, to his foster mum and rescuer who loved him and helped him on his journey back to health, and especially to his adoptive family, he cherished every day having survived that near-death experience and the long battle back to health. It certainly was my privilege to be able to write his story.
