

GBC concert featured Mozart

Georgetown Bach Chorale focused on Mozart selections in its season-ending concert of the 2011-2012 season.

Held in Holy Cross Church on Argyll Rd., the first half of the concert featured conductor/pianist Ron Greidanus leading the Chamber concert in Mozart's Piano Concerto #22 in E flat Major.

The second half featured the Chorale singers' rendition of Mozart's Requiem Mass in D Minor. The piece is filled with dramatic choruses, lyrical solos, and quartets.

Both works were featured in the soundtrack from Hollywood's depiction of Mozart's life in the film Amadeus.

Since its inception in 1999 the choir has performed concerts of classical works, often involving international artists. The choir, comprised of 18 auditioned members, focuses on music of the Baroque and Classical periods. In addition to its own choral concerts, the Chorale hosts other classical musicians during the season, ranging from vocal recitals to chamber and orchestral repertoire. The ensemble is under the direction of music director Ron Greidanus.
