St. John's United Church marks Queen's Jubilee with Tea and special service

St. John's United Church

In celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee and the church's 175th Anniversary, the people of St. John's United Church of Georgetown and Glen Williams invited friends and neighbours to relive the excitement of the Queen Elizabeth's 1953 Coronation.

A Coronation Tea was held Saturday complete with sandwiches, scones, sweets and tea, followed by the showing of the original CBC footage of the 1953 Coronation.

A Coronation Service was held on

PAUL AND MIKE ARMSTRONG

June 3, including hymns and music from the original 1953 Coronation Service in Westminster Abbey. Guests included Paul and Mike Armstrong, sons of the John Armstrong, the Mayor of Georgetown in 1953. The Armstrong twins spoke about what it was like to grow up in Georgetown in 1953 and the positive impact the members of St. John's had on the community.

A recently discovered home movie clip of the June 2, 1953 Georgetown Coronation Parade coming up Guelph St. right in front of St. John's church was also shown. The Service ended with the arrival of "Queen Elizabeth" (St. John's member, Caroline Peasgood), who invited all to join her outside under the tents for Queen Elizabeth Cake to play schoolyard games and to view some classic cars of the era.

It was a wonderful way to celebrate St. John's 175th Anniversary and the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Plastic Plant Pot and Tray Recycling

Did you know? Plastic plant pots and trays are not accepted in the Blue Box because the plastic can be difficult to process with other acceptable plastic materials. Plastic plant pots and trays can be easily recycled if they are collected separately.

Halton residents can drop off their plastic plant pots and trays, free of charge, at the Halton Waste Management Site (HWMS).

The HWMS is open Monday to Saturday, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

All of the plant pots and trays collected as part of this program will be recycled into new plastic products.

This drop-off program will run until November 16, 2012.

Other Drop-off Options

Some retailers and garden centres also take back plastic plant pots and trays. Visit www.halton.ca/waste for a list of retail drop-off locations. Conditions apply; please check with the retailer when dropping off materials.
