

ABOVE: The award winners show off their new hardware.
BELOW LEFT: Emily Riedel from the Sunday Recreational Green Team strikes her opening pose.
BELOW RIGHT: Michelle Yahiro gets a boost from her Novice Competitive teammates.

Halton Hills Synchro Showcase

Kaia Lapsley from the Sunday Recreational Blue Team flutters by.

Beth Howden, Myra Kohler, Caitie Mercer, Emma Major, Julia McKnight, Kaitlyn McKay and Michelle Yahiro give the crowd a sample of their enchanting Incantation number.

RIGHT: Ashley Ortega, Emily Brown, Ciara Aiello and Kaela Holmes give the crowd a taste of Hawaii during the Advanced Recreational Pink Team's performance.
BELOW: Hadley Biehn, Olivia Heaton, Emily Houtby, Kathryn Howden, Julia Joseph and Jocelyn Trisic have fun with their Irish-themed swim.

The girls in Halton Hills Synchro capped off another exciting season with their 18th annual showcase on May 6. This year's theme was International Splash and the show included seven routines and skill demonstrations from the club's recreational, competitive and trio teams. The Georgetown Indoor Pool's deck was packed with friends and family, who watched performances to music from South Africa, Ireland, Hawaii and more. Bravo, swimmers!
Photos by Andrea Lefebvre

Father's Day is June 17th!

So why wait to create?

Experience some creative fun...

Whether it's pottery painting fun or creating your own glass masterpiece, step one is to Relax, Enjoy and Create a great time!

- No appointment, experience or artistic ability required*
- Flat studio fee pricing and individualized instruction let you create at your own pace!
- Affordable fun from just $14 (plus tax)
- Drop-in glass fusing Monday to Friday

For the dad who has everything...

You can't go wrong with a gift from the heart! From manly mugs to glass masterpieces, we'll help you create the perfect gift!

And if time's really not on your side... Our ready-to-wrap gift ideas will knock that shopping list down to size in a snap!

Check our website for special "Dad-specific" workshops in June!

Our Summer CeramiCamps are better than ever!

Fully supervised fun for kids from 7 to 14

- Clay hand building creations
- Glass Fusing (with kid-friendly glass)
- Dry Brush & pottery painting techniques

Includes mid-session snack

No weekly commitment. 1/2 day, full day and weekly options available.

$35 + tax per 1/2 day $60 + tax per full day
 9 am - 12 or 1 pm - 4 pm 9 am - 4 pm

Visit our website for more info and summer schedule

Spaces limited so please book early

Bring in this ad any Monday through Friday in June for $5 off your next project. May not be combined with any other offer. One ad per family. Original ads only.