

ABOVE: Shannon Lem from Credit Valley Conservation quizzes Andrew and Liam Kingdon on what animal these furs, shells and skulls belong to.

BELOW: Maureen Smith, Gloria Sargent and Angelika Sommer raffle off this beautiful quilt for the Bruce Trail.

earth day Fair

The Georgetown Market Place celebrated Earth Day on April 28 by hosting its annual Earth Day Fair. Shoppers checked out a live bird exhibit and made nature-themed crafts while learning about local environmental groups, matters and initiatives.

Photos by Andrea Lefebvre

Brad from Mountsberg Conservation Area demonstrates how far Tavey the Great Horned Owl's head can rotate.

Julia and Gabriel Blandford learn a thing or two at the Credit Valley Conservation booth.

RIGHT: Sandra Davey from Mountsberg Conservation Area shows off Takenya the Red-tailed Hawk and Bean the American Kestrel.

LEFT: Two-year-old Mackenzie Harwood displays her finished product at the craft table.

EXCEPTIONAL GOLF, RIGHT IN YOUR BACKYARD.

EXPERIENCE THE BENEFITS OF
PRIVATE GOLF WITH ONE OF OUR FULL PLAY TRIAL MEMBERSHIPS

THE CLUB AT NORTH HALTON

905-877-5236

363 Maple Avenue West, Georgetown, ON

Visit our newly designed website at www.northhaltongolf.com