Pauline Barlow was very happy to see 15 people at her first Line Dancing class. Hopefully, that means when the music plays at the social dinners we will have more people up dancing. It's always fun to dance, but if you aren't able to dance, then its fun just watching the others. That's the good thing about line dancing; you don't have to have partners. As we know as we reach 55 plus many of us no longer have partners, male or female.

The Rama trip was on December 28, and the 50/50 was won by Beryl Clegg. Celebrating their birthdays were Karin Brozic, Cassy Ladley, Mary Van der Sanden, Denis Sullivan and Harry Van der Sanden. The next Rama trip is January 25.

On Tuesday, January 17 at 2 p.m., we will be celebrating the birthdays of members who were born in either December or January.

The Active Living Classes resumed this week in the Acton Community Hall. There will be Bone Building and Gentle Yoga classes. Not enough people registered for the Zumba class, but check the fall and winter community activity book as there are more courses offered at the Georgetown Seniors Centre. If there is space, and you are interested in any of the courses offered, you could still participate.

Sheila Foster is one of our dedicated Monday morning craft group. She asked me to try and arrange a trip to Mary Maxim in late March. Sheila has some of the Spring Mary Maxim books if you are interested in what they sell. There is a sign up sheet for anyone interested. At the moment our plan is to visit Mary Maxim, and also have lunch at Scotts Diner in Paris. More information will be available once we see how much interest there is.

Vice-President Dave Maloney was in the Trillium Hospital. He is home now and we wish him a speedy recovery. We miss you Dave. Joan is going to be kept busy working on new menus, no more fish and chips.

The Acton Seniors Centre offers its condolences to Helen Elder on the passing of her husband, Lorne, last month. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, Helen.

Have you renewed your membership for 2012? About two-thirds of our members have renewed so far this year. If you haven't renewed your name has been pulled from the 50/50 drum for 2012.

The 50/50 was not won again this week, so next Friday the amount to be won should be around $425. Worth making sure you have paid your membership and put your loonie in the box.
