Anthony Maan & Michael Patterson (The Halton Window & Door Co.)

For Anthony Maan and Michael Patterson of the Halton Window and Door Company, honesty is the best policy. The two pride themselves on not only providing the highest quality services and products, but also educating their clients about the products they sell and the work they do.

As the name suggests, the Halton Window and Door Company sells and installs residential windows and exterior doors. As part of their commitment to customer service, Anthony and Michael have opened a 1,200 square-foot showroom at 374 Guelph Street, Georgetown - the plaza at the corner of Guelph Street and Delrex Boulevard. The showroom features full-sized and installed windows and doors so customers can see exactly what they have to offer.

What sets the Georgetown-based business apart from others is that Anthony and Michael do all of the selling and installing themselves. They have one crew and maintain the highest standard of installation in the industry.

"We don't hire any subcontractors, so the customer is always dealing with one of the owners of the company," Anthony says.

HEATHER MENESES

Heather Meneses (Balanced)

Heather Meneses wants to help you get healthy. As the owner and lead practitioner of balanced, she provides traditional Chinese acupuncture, Chinese massage and Qigong classes, an ancient Chinese healing exercise that synchronizes the mind, breathing, proper posture and movement to achieve full body health and longevity.

Having been in the business since 1999, Heather treats all types of ailments and complaints in patients of all ages, although lately she has been focusing on cosmetic and cellulite acupuncture, which rejuvenates the skin and reduces the appearance of wrinkles, fine lines, acne and more. She treats all of her patients on an individual basis, choosing acupuncture points based on each person's individual symptoms.

Heather's journey began with her mother, who studied and practised Chinese medicine in Vancouver. Heather studied science at university and hadn't planned on following her mother into Chinese medicine. All that changed when Heather had a family of her own and began studying to help them. Chinese medicine soon became a passion.

"I love helping people get healthy and feel better about themselves. It's a privilege for me to give back to my community in these ways and support them in their efforts to stay healthy," says Heather, a Georgetown resident. "My favourite part is seeing their smiles as they leave."
