THANK YOU

The family of the late Grant Allan would like to thank neighbours, friends and family for their many acts of kindness. Food, visits, generous donations, flowers, hugs, music and phone calls were much appreciated. Seeing all those familiar faces at the visitation and funeral was very encouraging. We would also like to thank the Rev'd Peter Barrow, the staff of Riverside Glen and Guelph General Hospital, the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 197 and the MacKinnon Family Funeral Home for their care and thoughtfulness.

Georgian Allan and family sincerely thank friends, neighbours, family and HASC members for the great visits & memories of Fred shared. Thanks to Mr. Bedell for a great service and family members for eulogies. Special thanks to Howard for the memories of Fred in his own words and the great lunch, as usual, by the Legion ladies. A special thanks to Dr Minc for his visits to Fred and for sitting down with family members to cheer us up. He is a treasure and a blessing to have when you need him.

"We will remember"
