Nina's Place, a sexual assault/domestic violence care centre in Burlington, is the beneficiary of $5,000 thanks to the efforts of a group of Acton High School students (second from left), Annalisa Scigliano, Mai-Lynne Chang and Aria Gaeta, who were taking part in a nation-wide program called Youth & Philanthropy Initiative Canada. As part of a civics class at AHS, students were asked to adopt a community-based charity in the area, visit the facility and put together a presentation on how that organization functions. The AHS winners emerged victorious and then attended The May Event in Toronto along with other YPI winners from schools across Canada. Teacher Jennet Clayton (left) oversaw the YPI final in AHS's library that included four other student groups vying for the donation prize. Submitted photo

Links2Care was the recipient of $5,000 from the Youth Philanthropy Initiative (YPI) after Grade 10 student Erica McDonald (centre) gave her outstanding presentation to the judges at GDHS. Eleven groups took part in promoting their charity of choice, and McDonald's presentation was chosen. On hand for the cheque presentation (from left) GDHS student council president Scott Ramsey, L2C staff Patty Colautti, Erica McDonald, Cathy Gerrow of L2C and Brandon Gillespie of YPI. Photo by Ted Brown

As another school year drew to a close, local crossing guards were celebrated at a special appreciation ceremony and luncheon at St. Joseph School in Acton. Mayor Rick Bonnette presented the guards with gift bags and certificates during the ceremony, which was followed by a picnic lunch in the schoolyard. Photo by Andrea Lefebvre
