Calling non-profits: Halton is accepting funding applications

Halton Council has approved a revised framework for the Halton Region Community Investment Fund which provides funding to non-profit programs that address community health and social needs in Halton. The revised framework will provide $702,691 in annual funding in multi-year and one-time grants to community agencies that qualify. The introduction of one-time grants (of up to $20,000) will make funding accessible to a wider range of agencies and support new and innovative projects and small capital requests.

"Providing funding to support the important work being done by the non-profit sector is a key action item in the Citizen's Priorities - Halton Region's 2011-2014 Action Plan," said Regional Chair Gary Carr. "The non-profit sector plays a critical role in our community. The work they do contributes to our quality of life and we want to support their efforts to help build a healthy community for individuals who want to live, work, raise a family and retire in Halton."

Funding applications for the Halton Region Community Investment Fund are now available. Letters of intent for multi-year funding are due by 2 p.m., April 23. Those who are determined eligible at the letter of intent stage will be invited to submit a full application for funding which will be due May 18, 2012 by 2 p.m. Applications for one-time grants are being accepted until May 1 at 2 p.m.

Multi-year grants are available for up to three years and will continue to support charitable organizations to deliver established programs. One-time grants are available to charitable and non-charitable non-profit organizations to support new and innovative projects and small capital requests. Information about the application process and online forms are available the Region's website at www.halton.ca/investmentfund. Funding recommendations will be made to Regional Council in July, 2012.

All potential grant applicants are encouraged to register to attend one of four information sessions being offered throughout Halton: The Halton Hills meeting is Tuesday, April 10, from 9:30 to 11 a.m., at the Gellert Community Centre, in Georgetown South.

To attend a session, please register online at www.halton.ca/investmentfund or dial 311, 1-866-442-5866, and RSVP by no later than 12 p.m., on the day prior to the session you are attending.

The revised fund was based on a consultation process in January, 2012, which engaged more than 150 non-profit stakeholders through community workshops and one-to-one interviews across Halton. The consultations were also used as an opportunity to explore other ways in which Halton Region can help build capacity in the non-profit sector. The process was facilitated by MASS LBP, a Canadian advisory firm that specializes in community engagement. The final report of the consultation, as well as a Report and recommendations from Regional Staff, are available on the Halton Region's website at www.halton.ca/investmentfund.
