Ready for outdoor season

The Rockwood FC U16 Nellis Construction Girls rep soccer team played five indoor soccer games over March Break at the Marden and Bechtel indoor soccer fields. The Rockwood Self Storage girls took home two wins with a 5-0 rout against Cambridge, and a 2-1 win over Woolwich. They tied Heads 1-all, and had two 1-0 losses against Puslinch and Kitchener.

The Gamsby and Mannerow girls scored eight goals and only let in four over the five games with great defenders and amazing goal keeping by Holly Eckerich and Tiana Fellows. Both Nikki Sinkner and Rachel Villa scored twice, while Sarah Ongarato, Darian Drewery, Gesse Roberts and Kiera Murison each had singles for the Eden House girls soccer team.

EWCS NEWS

News & Events

Spring has sprung and its time to hop into Book-Ends now. Until April 30, all children's books, gardening, crafts and cook books are half price. Visit us at 45 Main Street, Erin for this 50% discount.

High Tea & High Heels: On April 15, join EWCS for a tea party and accessories sale. With the success of our annual fashion show we've decided to have an accessories sale for the first time this spring. Enjoy a cup of tea in your take-home tea cup and saucer, along with scones, and other treats. Bid on silent auction items. Shop some of the New to You stores' top accessories (gently-used of course), all while supporting your local community services.

Learn to Run Clinic: This year the clinic is being lead by Janet Hern of FitYou. The clinic includes: training handouts, training log, training schedule, weekly informative lectures on running and related topics leading to the shamrock shuffle. Call FitYou 519-833-0220 or EWCS 519-833-9696 for more information or to register.

Moon is Round: An eight-week program based on the Parent-Child Mother Goose program begins April 12. For babies birth-12 months and their caregivers. A beautiful way to spend time with your baby while learning ways to use rhymes and songs during everyday activities. By taking part in the program, you will walk away with rhymes to do while changing diapers, feeding and comforting your baby. Sleeping babies welcome. To register call Marlene 519-833-9696 ex.223 Space is limited.
