

Acton Litter Busters

ECO GUIDES: For Earth Day this year members of the 3rd Acton Guides showed how they would conserve energy and save the earth with a poster. Their eco-friendly work is displayed in the window at Dollar Stretcher Daze. – Marie Shadbolt photo

ENVIRONMENTAL EFFORTS: Staff of the Acton branch of TD Canada Trust helped cleanup their part of town last Thursday during the Town's 22-Minute Makeover. Staffers Colleen Marchant and Angie Zmija were ace litter busters. – Marie Shadbolt photo

EARTH WEEK WARRIORS: Robert Little School students and area neighbours cleaned up the marsh/wetland area by the Acton arena/community centre on Saturday as part of the Community Cleanup. – Submitted photo

Eco efforts make a difference

The Town looks more inviting, thanks to the hard work of a dedicated army of volunteers who picked up tonnes of litter and garbage during the Town's 22-Minute Makeover on Friday and the Community Cleanup on Saturday.

In Acton, volunteers – some led by the Mayor and Acton councillors – cleaned up areas of Prospect Park and the downtown.

MUSTANG MIGHT: McKenzie-Smith Bennett students cleaned up litter at their school and in the surrounding neighbourhood on Friday as part of the Town's annual cleanup efforts. – Submitted photo

EARTH DAY EFFORTS: Sunny weather made students at McKenzie-Smith Bennett School eager to get out and pick up a winter's worth of waste on Friday as part of the Town's 22-Minute Makeover. – Submitted photo

CLEANUP CREW: A crew of students from McKenzie-Smith Bennett School cleaned up litter on Peel Street on Friday as part of the Town's 22-Minute Makeover. – Ted Tyler photo

PROSPECT PALS: Acton Councillor Mike O'Leary (left) was joined by a small, but dedicated crew of volunteers – Acton's George and Ted Bulaclac – picking up litter in Prospect Park on Saturday as part of the Town's annual Community Cleanup. – Ted Tyler photo