ARNOLD James Phee

A Celebration of Life/Memorial Service will be held in Acton, Ontario on Saturday, May 5th, 2012 at the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 197, 15 Wright Street, Acton at approximately 2:00 PM, following the interment at Fairview Cemetery, 20 Cobblehill Road, Acton at 1:00 PM. Refreshments will be served at The Legion from 1:00 PM until 4:00 PM.

SKERRETT: Mary Emery (nee Bigelow)

Skerrett, Mary Emery née Bigelow of Eden Mills, died suddenly Sunday, April 15th, 2012. Beloved wife of Brian, loving mother to P. Brian Skerrett of Guelph, and Kevin Skerrett and Simone Powell of Ottawa, especially loved Grand-nan to Alexander Skerrett, and special aunt to Seadna Ledger née Bigelow (Dave Ledger). A feminist and an activist, Mary committed herself to a number of struggles for social justice, both local and international. Most recently, she initiated several projects in support of building stronger links between the community and the local labour movement. Mary held a deep respect for animals, particularly horses, cats and dogs, from whom she learned many profound life lessons. She greatly valued her Nova Scotian heritage, and enjoyed many summers at "the Camp", a log cabin on the Bay of Fundy. Mary's lifelong passion for music of many styles was reflected in her involvement in several community choirs, her mastery of ragtime piano, and an intense appreciation of many popular, Broadway, and classical recordings. Accomplished and experimental in the kitchen, Mary's approach to cooking was like so much else in her life - studious, creative, and generous. The tireless energy and humour she brought to those around her will be greatly missed. Mary will be remembered by family and all friends on Saturday, April 28th from 2:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at a "celebration of her life", at the OAC Centennial Arboretum Centre, University of Guelph, College Ave. East, Guelph. In lieu of flowers, donations may be directed to Guelph's Welcome In Drop In Centre (ibvm.ca/support) or the Canada Haiti Action Network (canadahaitiaction.ca).

IN MEMORIAM

Barry Alexander Wilson

*It's lonesome here without you
We miss you more each day
Life doesn't seem the same
Since you have gone away*

*When days are sad and lonely and everything goes wrong
We seem to hear you whisper
Cheer up and carry on*

*Each time we see your picture
You seem to smile and say
Don't cry, I am in God's hands
We'll meet again someday*

Forever Loved and missed,
Mom & Family

Halton Catholic District Board celebrates

During Catholic Education Week from May 6 - 11, all Halton Catholic District School Board schools will host activities in celebration of this year's theme of Catholic Education: Walking in the Light of Christ.

"The theme for the week is Walking in the Light of Christ," explained Alice Anne LeMay, Chair of the Board. "In our schools, the Spirit of God is alive. When you walk through the halls of our schools, stop and listen. You will hear the marvelous work of our students and staff reflecting God's graciousness in their learning and teaching."

Catholic Education Week highlights the partnership that remains fundamental to Catholic Education: the family-school-parish triad, emphasizing the parish, which remains the centre of the faith community. Catholic Education Week will begin on Sunday, May 6 so that the local Catholic community may have an opportunity to celebrate the enduring gift of Catholic Education within the context of the Eucharistic Celebration.

The Board's 24th Annual Student Awards of Excellence Ceremony to be held on April 30, 2012 at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Secondary School in Oakville will serve as the kick-off event to this week-long showcase and celebration. Acton's Nicole Walker, a Christ the King student, will receive two prestigious awards at the ceremony.

In addition, the Board will host its third annual Walk With Jesus event on May 10, 2012. Approximately 1,100 students, along with teachers, staff and parents are expected to participate. Furthermore, staff who are celebrating an anniversary of employment with our Board will be presented with their anniversary pin during Catholic Education Week.
