

Meet the Olympians
 The Georgetown Market Place recently hosted an Olympic Day with former Canadian Olympic team medallists in attendance. Mike Harris, a Georgetown native, who was a silver medallist in curling at the 1998 Games in Nagano, Japan, signed autographs for fans. Also taking part were hurdler Mark McCoy and members of the Canadian women's gold medal hockey team from 2010. The event was sponsored by AMJ Campbell. Photo by Mike Jander

Pair charged with obstructing police

Two Georgetown men are facing charges after Halton Police responded to a collision in the Georgetown Market Place parking lot early Monday morning.

About 2:30 a.m. an officer, who was in the parking lot at the Halton Police station on Guelph St., heard what he believed was a collision nearby and went to investigate.

The officer found a brown GMC van had collided with a light standard in the mall parking lot and two males standing outside of it looking at the damage. The two males were seen walking away from the vehicle.

Police stopped the men to ask about the collision and the men denied any knowledge of it. The officer believed the men were misleading police in an attempt to obstruct the investigation. The van had been stolen earlier from outside of the Mac's store on Delrex Blvd.

Charged with obstruct police and possession of property obtained by crime is Christopher Vieira, 21.

Charged with obstruct police, possession of property obtained by crime and breach of probation is Bartosz Furmanek, 27.
