

Local Tide proving hard to stop

Linebacker Brent Jensen of the Halton Hills Crimson Tide brings down a TNT Express ball carrier during the final Ontario Minor Football League regular-season contest in the junior varsity division this past Sunday at Kiwanis Field in Georgetown. The JV Tide won this game 32-0 to complete an 8-0 campaign, as did the Halton Hills varsity squad, which finished up with a 26-17 comeback victory over TNT in Tottenham and received a first-round playoff bye. Ryan Tanason, Mackenzie Hester Morrison, Zack St. Jacques and quarterback Spencer Kardash scored touchdowns while Michael Smudzowski, John Buckles and Glodi Mwambi were superb on defence for the varsity Tide, which is set to play its first post-season game on Sunday, July 29 at Kiwanis Field at 7 p.m. This Saturday, the 5-3 bantam Crimson Tide will host the 0-8 Mississauga Warriors at Kiwanis Field at 4 p.m. in a playoff matchup, followed by the JVs squaring off against the TNT Express again at 7 p.m.

Golf roundup: Ovenden 17th

Georgetown's Luke Ovenden shot a nine-over-par 293 over four rounds to finish in a tie for 17th place at last week's GAO Men's Amateur Championship held at the Summit Golf & Country Club in Richmond Hill.

Ovenden, a 21-year-old North Halton member who's heading into his senior year at the University of Texas El Paso, recorded rounds of 74-75-70-74 at the Ontario Amateur.

Longtime Maple Leaf Junior Tour member Joel Albany of Georgetown won his first event on the circuit over the weekend, shooting a four-under-par score over 27 holes as the tournament was shortened by thunderstorms at Mississauga's Braeben course.

Albany, 16, had an even-par 72 in round one and then finished day with a flourish in the boys' 14-16 age group.

"On the front nine of the second day, on the last four holes, I went birdie, par, eagle, birdie," Albany said of his -4 score for the second round. He finished seven strokes ahead of runner-up Ben Brandreth of Rockwood.

At the Canadian Junior Golf Association's International Challenge Qualifier held this week Georgetown's Eagle Ridge club, Norval's Nicklaus Naumovski, 12, placed sixth out of 20 entrants in the boys' 14 & under category with scores of 78-82 to finish nine strokes behind the winner.

Courts open Saturday

The public is welcome to attend the grand opening of the new Gellert Community Park Tennis Courts this Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon at the Gellert Community Centre (10241 Eighth Line).

An official ribbon-cutting ceremony and tennis activities for people of all ages will take place.

The event celebrates the completion of the six new lit courts at the Gellert and the relocation of the Halton Hills Tennis Club from the Mold-Masters SportsPlex on Guelph St.
