COURTNEY GASCHO

In memory of our precious daughter who died twelve very long years ago on July 31st, 2000.

Polishing stars and making them shimmer,
A job for an angel we can only remember
Forming each snowflake, each one unique

Parting the clouds to take a peek;
Whatever you're doing sweet angel above,
We think of you always and hold you in love.

You're safe and secure in our Father's hands,
We're missing you so, but He understands,
And like stars or snowflakes you're one of a kind,
And loved by the family that you left behind.

We'll watch for your stars to light up the night,
Till one day we'll be there to hold you tight.

Loved and missed
more than words can describe by dad, mom and Shane
