

CANADA DAY

in the Glen

TOP LEFT: Isaac West braces himself in the dunk tank.

TOP CENTRE: Lauren Rock, Dana Pitcher, Veronica Fong and Christiane Newcombe make sure the rubber duckies are ready to set sail down the Credit River for the annual duck race.

Brody Calver helps spectators keep cool along the parade route.

BELOW: Halton Hills Firefighters stage a mock car accident to give the crowd a taste of what they do.

ABOVE: Students from Rampulla's Martial Arts show off their skills.

ABOVE: Ayla, David, Elizabeth and Stephanie Hope cool down with a little ice cream.

ABOVE: Mason Jesus had a pretty successful day at the duck pond.

LEFT: Special guest Jack Harrison, who is "British by birth and Canadian by choice," shares his memories of meeting Queen Elizabeth.

Georgetown Skating Club

Full season and 10 week programs

Ice Show at end of season for all to participate

- Learn-to-skate
- Power skating
- Figure skating

Register online at:
www.georgetownskatingclub.ca

Inquiries directed to:
info@georgetownskatingclub.ca

