Major Mosquito Eagles win tournament thriller

Avenging a preliminary round loss to Peterborough, Georgetown's major mosquito Eagles bounced back to beat the same team 9-8 in a 12-inning thriller in the championship game of a recent youth baseball tournament in Barrie.

The Eagles also took top spot at a tourney they hosted earlier this season, defeating North York 9-6 in the final. Catcher Zack Homes was named the Golden Glove recipient as the Barrie tournament MVP.

Preliminary round— Georgetown 16, London 0; Peterborough 10, Georgetown 4; Georgetown 7, Richmond Hill 2
Semifinal— Georgetown 12, Oshawa 6
Championship— Georgetown 9, Peterborough 8

Major Bantam Eagles

After a tough loss to Port Hope in the semifinals, Georgetown's Mars/Pedigree/Frost GM Eagles downed Corunna 4-1 to earn the consolation title at a tournament in Orillia.

The Eagles are gearing up for the provincial championship tournament in Simcoe on the Labour Day weekend.

Preliminary round— Georgetown 4, North York 3; Georgetown 10, Brantford 0; Georgetown 7, Thorold 0
Semifinal— Port Hope 5, Georgetown 3
Consolation final— Georgetown 4, Corunna 1

Jr. C Bulldogs swept by Hamilton

Although they were swept by the Hamilton Bengals in the Ontario Jr. C Lacrosse League's West Division final, the Halton Hills Bulldogs aren't finished playing this summer just yet.

The Bulldogs lost 7-3 Tuesday night in Hamilton as the Bengals took the best-of-5 series 3-0. Both teams now move on to the Meredith Cup league championship tournament to be held in Wilmot Aug. 17-19.

Scoring for the 'Dogs Tuesday were Mike Nicolucci (2) and Kyle Moore.
