

Local animators present History of Animation

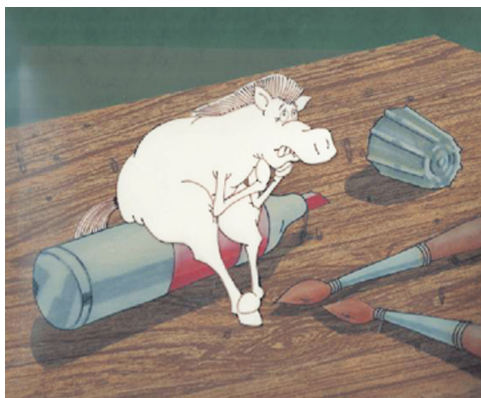

Dale and Dave Cox of Glen Williams are preparing an exhibition of certain projects the two have worked on during their four decades in the animation industry.

The wall art show, The History of Animation... according to Dale and Dave, is free to all visitors at the Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre, 515 Main St., in Glen Williams.

Screening and Reflection on 40 Years— a viewing of early and middle-aged films in which they participated— will require a donation in aid of Williams Mill's children's art education program.

The wall exhibit runs Sept. 5-16, noon to 5 p.m. with the Gallery reception on Saturday, Sept. 8, 1-4 p.m. The Gallery is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Screening and Reflection on 40 Years will run Sept. 8, 5-7 p.m.; Sept. 9, 1-3 p.m. or 4-6 p.m. Admission is by donation. Limited seating is available. Please register at www.williamsmill.com or buy tickets at the Williams Mill Gallery, 905-873-8203 or Dave Cox, 905-877-7874.

Late 1970s artwork from Art's Place, TVOntario. White cel vinyl on acetate over a magic marker background.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Friends:

Have you recently been mailed a notice that looks like it is from our government?

Is it from an insurance company selling an insurance policy for funeral expenses and not a pre-paid funeral contract?

Our dedicated staff would be pleased to discuss funeral pre-planning and guaranteed pre-paid funeral contracts with you. Please contact us for further information.
