

Local volunteers to raise awareness about suicide on Monday

On Monday, Sept. 10, 5:30-9 a.m., volunteers from Distress Centres North Halton and Oakville will be at the Georgetown, Milton, and Oakville GO Stations handing out information to help raise awareness of the 10th Anniversary of World Suicide Prevention Day (WSPD).

In Canada more than 4,000 people die each year by suicide.

In Halton Region an average of 30 suicide deaths occur annually. Every person who dies by suicide directly impacts at least 10 family members, friends, or colleagues.

The Distress Centres of North Halton (DCNH) and Oakville are community-based organizations that provide free and confidential telephone support to individuals 365 days of the year.

who cares about your feelings and what you are going through can make all the difference."
To contact the Distress Line North Halton call 905-877-1211. To contact the Distress Line, Oakville, call 905-849-4541.

North Halton and Oakville Distress Centres are United Way Funded Agencies. For more information please visit www.distresscentrenorth-halton.ca and www.distresscentreoakville.com. For more information on WSPD visit <http://www.iasp.info/wspd/>.

Acclaim Health seeks Hospice volunteers for training

Join the volunteer support team and experience the joy of helping!
Acclaim Health's Hospice Orientation Program, for new volunteers, begins Monday September 10 and continues every Monday for 10 weeks, from 6-9 p.m.

Receive education on supporting individuals in this community who are living at home with a life threatening illness. Volunteers provide emotional support and caregiver relief for family members, as well as bereavement follow-up support.

This training is free.
For more information or to Register, please call Acclaim Health Volunteer Services: 905-827-8800 ext. 2313 or 2318.
