

Free pancake breakfast to be served during first-ever Bike It To the Market

Dust off your old two-wheeler, grab the kids, and ride to the Georgetown Farmers' Market. That's the invitation from the newly-formed Halton Hills Bicycle Friendly Community Committee.

This Saturday, Sept. 15, the Town of Halton Hills will be hosting its first community cycling event. Cyclists of all ages who arrive by bike will be treated to a free pancake breakfast.

The Bike It To the Market Event will take place in the Main St. parking lot, opposite Church St., 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. Free secure bike parking will be provided in a bike corral. A pancake breakfast will be served by the Rotary Club with McDonald's Restaurants providing coffee and juice.

"This event is the first of many cycling events designed to encourage more cycling in Halton Hills," said Jane Fogal, Chair of the Trails and Cycling Committee. "Our mission is to make Halton Hills a safer and more enjoyable place to ride a bike. We are doing this because we believe that keeping people more active leads to a healthier community."

Main St. will be closed to vehicular traffic from the Market south to Maple Ave. to ensure that the ride from Georgetown South and the Delrex area is worry free. Once at the breakfast location, riders will find lots of fun activities as well as cycling related information. Halton Regional Police will be conducting a free helmet fitting clinic. Face painting, balloon animals and live music.

The Bicycle Friendly Community Committee is a sub-committee of the Halton Hills Trails and Cycling Advisory Committee. The group is looking for approximately 30 volunteers for that day's event.

For details on this committee or to offer suggestions for more activities, contact Fogal, 905-877-5806, janefogal@haltonhills.ca. Info: www.haltonhills.ca/Events.
