

Tim Hortons locations present $1,000 scholarships

Therese Zamora (third from left), her brother Tudor and dad Roy, along with Taylor McMahon (third from right) received their Tim Hortons $1,000 scholarships from (left to right) Guelph St. location general manager Peter Brzozowicz, owner Mary Walker and managers Frances Berg and Erin Loughran.

From left, Mountainview Rd. N. Tim Hortons general manager Peter Brzozowicz and owner Mary Walker present $1,000 scholarships to Stephanie Cook and Stephanie Henderson alongside store managers Melissa Lane and Tanya Drake.

Photo by Eamonn Maher

Photo by Eamonn Maher

Laidlaw Tourney to JumpStart

The 9th Annual Bill Laidlaw Memorial Golf Tournament, held this summer was another great day of golf and fellowship. The Eagle Ridge Golf Course hosted the event in honour of Bill Laidlaw to raise funds for the youth of the Noval United Church and the Halton Hills community. Brad Fraser, representing the Bill Laidlaw Memorial Fund committee was pleased to present Canadian Tire Jumpstart Chapter Chair, Anne McClenaghan, with a cheque for $1,500. This money will help ensure Jumpstart can help more local kids to get active by giving them the opportunity to participate in local sports and recreation.

Flint is ready to putt

Adoptable one-and-a-half-year-old Siberian Husky/Husky Mix "Flint" was on hand at Eagle Ridge Golf Club for the Upper Credit Humane Society's annual Golf Tournament.

Photo by Jon Borgstrom

Directors for the day

On the final day of the Town of Halton Hills's summer camp and aquatics program, two staff members get to spend the day in the shoes of Director of Recreation Terry Alyman while he works as a supervisor at one of the camps. Kirstin Shenk and Kyle Chapman were hard at work in Alyman's office during the morning before hitting the road in the afternoon to tour some of the town's recreation facilities. Shenk just graduated from the University of Toronto's kinesiology program and is now taking in Humber College's grad program for exercise science and lifestyle management, with Chapman heading into his third year at the University of Guelph for commerce and accounting.

Photo by Eamon Maher

Outstanding Employee

Office Magic employee Tracey Thornhill (centre) was recently named Outstanding Employee by Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, after being nominated by her employer. Thornhill, who has been at Office Magic for eight years, was joined by Chamber chair Norm Paget and director Wendy Farrow-Reed for the presentation.

Photo by Ted Brown

Scorpio's Peace & Polish opens

Mayor Rick Bonnette joins the Scorpio's Peace & Polish team as they celebrate the salon's grand opening and official first day on August 23. The salon offers nail care, waxing, tinting, facials, haircuts and more. Appointments are preferred but walk-ins are accepted. Scorpio's is located at 134 Guelph Street in Georgetown (across from Christ the King). For more information, call 905-702-1615 or email peace_polish@live.com. On hand for the grand opening are (from left) Ryleigh Metcalfe, Shayna Middaugh, owner Tammie Field, Andie Field, Mayor Rick Bonnette and Rekha Abhi.

Photo by Andrea Lefebvre