

Some people worked on Labour Day

Hasty Mart co-owner Amrit Singh had a busy day with a slow, but steady stream of customers. All was quiet in Acton for Halton police Acting Sergeant Ken Best who had numerous requests for directions, and PharmaPlus pharmacy manager Lynn Lafrance said they were able to open holiday Monday because of the size of the store.

Police/Fire Report

R.I.D.E arrests

Halton police seized drugs and laid an uncommon charge of driving while impaired by drugs against an 18-year-old Acton man who was stopped in a Halton police R.I.D.E. (Reduced Impaired Driving Everywhere) spot check on Saturday night at Peel and Young Streets.

At 11:44 p.m. police searched a vehicle and found the driver in possession of 127 grams of marijuana, 127 grams of hash, and a total of $1,870 in cash. He was charged with two counts of possession of drugs for the purpose of trafficking and driving while impaired by drugs. He was released on his own recognizance.

Earlier that night at 11:21 p.m. at the same location, police searched two occupants of a car and charged each with possession of 14-grams of marijuana. Both 20-year-old Acton men were released on their own recognizance.

Fire Calls

Acton firefighters were not required after being called to an accident involving two motorcycles on 15 Side

Road, between the Fifth and Sixth Lines at 7:09 Friday night. No details were released.

Firefighters ensured

two vehicles involved in an accident on Dublin Line at Highway 7 were not leaking any fluids following an accident last Thursday at 9:05 a.m.
