

Acton celebrates Hallowe'en

From spooky to cute to very imaginative, costumed partiers enjoyed themselves at various Acton Hallowe'en dances and parties Saturday night. – Ted Tyler photos

Mom, Dad & Tara are very proud of Nicole on her graduation from York University Bachelor of Arts with Honours.

On Sunday, November 18th, the Georgetown Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) Club will be presenting their second annual Fashion for Education show at Blue Springs Country Club in Acton. This event starts at 1pm with lunch, followed by fashions by "Our Dressing Room" in Guelph.

Throughout the event there will be raffle tickets available (5 for $20) for a large selection of items, including original art work and handmade quilts. The grand prize, and the last to be drawn, is a cruise for two.

This event raises money for scholarships for Halton Hills high school students going on for post-secondary education.

Tickets are $35 each and are available at Country Reflections, 37 Mill St. East, in Acton.
