Utilitarian farm equipment – festooned with lights, decorations and Santa Claus – will be paraded through Rockwood next Thursday night in the 20th annual Parade of Lights, hosted by the Rockwood farming community.

Five of the original farmers will be back this year – using thousands of lights to celebrate the season and highlight agriculture. Organizers take great pride that the invitation-only parade is non-commercial, and draws thousands of people to the village to celebrate the holidays, with help from Guelph-Eramosa Township Council, OPP and the Eramosa Fire department.

The parade begins at 7 p.m. on the north edge of Rockwood, along Alma Street, north on the Fourth Line. The detailed parade route is available at www.rockwoodfarmersparade.org
