Halton Police launch "Lock it or Lose it" campaign

Tomorrow Halton Police launch its "Lock it or Lose it" campaign – a proactive crime prevention program that encourages drivers to take precautions to protect their vehicles and vehicle contents from theft, particularly during the holiday season.

"Our police service is joining police services across Ontario this holiday season in urging motorists to lock their vehicles and ensure valuables are not left in plain sight," said Deputy Chief Andrew Fletcher. "The Lock it or Lose it campaign is about police working with our community to ensure we all take precautions so that crime doesn't ruin the holiday season."

"Lock it or Lose it" is a program of the Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police and is supported by a number of partners – the Insurance Bureau of Canada, Interac Association, Rogers Smart Home Monitoring, Roy Speed Ross, Mac's Convenience Stores, and Securitas Canada.

Under "Lock it or Lose it", police officers examine parked vehicles to confirm they are locked and that no valuables have been left in plain view. Officers place a small notice on vehicles checked indicating what safety precautions were neglected and offering some simple prevention tips for drivers to protect their vehicles against theft.

In 2011, 82,411 vehicles were stolen in Canada. The good news is that auto theft was down nationally by 12 percent, with Ontario down by 9 percent. Unfortunately, Ontario auto theft still amounted to just more than $93-million in 2011. This cost is passed onto the consumer.

Since January, there have been 4261 reported incidents of theft from motor vehicles in Halton. The vast majority of these thefts were preventable if motorists had secured their vehicles and valuables.
