Police/Fire Report

Suspicious man sought

Halton police continue searching for a man who approached an Acton boy as he walked home from school last Wednesday afternoon.

Police said the boy was waking on Willow Street, just north of Church Street, when a man seated in the backseat of a greenish/blue- coloured car, possibly a Buick, opened the window and began talking to the boy. When the boy continued on his way, the man got out of the car and attempted further conversation. The boy ran home and reported the incident.

The suspect is a white male, aged 25 to 30, approximately six-feet with a brown/black beard. He was wearing a toque, ripped blue jeans and a baggy green winter coat. The car was an older model with a dent on the driver's front bumper.

Anyone with information about this incident is asked to call Halton police at 905-878-5511, ex: 2420, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222- 8477 or at www.haltoncrimestoppers.com

Dust causes alarm

Cleaning staff sweeping dust are believed to have triggered an alarm on Elgin Street North at 6:08 p.m. last Thursday. Acton firefighters found the smoke alarm on the main floor was activated when staff cleaned the vestibule.

Injury accident

At least one person was taken to hospital following a two-car crash last Monday evening at the intersection of Main Street North and Guelph Street. Acton firefighters removed a young female victim from her car that had been T-boned. A second EMS crew arrived on scene, but it is not known if anyone else was injured.
