

IN MEMORIAM

Lori Swackhamer
Troy Hunter
In loving memory of a dear daughter and son-in-law who passed away December 25, 2002

*Ten years ago you left us
But memories keep you near
To help us when we are troubled
And fight that silent tear
You touched so many people
In a special kind of way
Family, friends and others
Each and every day
So we keep in our hearts
The love of the past
For there it was planted
Forever to last*

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed

Gordon Wesley Lott
In loving memory of my dear husband who passed away December 18, 1991.

*Just can't help remembering you
The good times that we shared,
And all the countless little ways,
You showed me that you cared.
I wish there was some special way,
To tell you all I can't express,
But since there isn't, I'll just say
You were my happiness.*

Always remembered by your loving wife.

Police/Fire Report

Expired permit
Drawn to a Campbell Court residence early Saturday afternoon by a burn complaint, Acton firefighters found a homeowner burning building materials with an expired permit. Because the smoke was blowing towards neighbouring house, the fire was extinguished and the homeowner advised to get a new permit before doing any more burning.

No injury accident
Acton firefighters arrived at the scene of a car in the ditch at the Sixth Line/25 Side Road intersection at 5:33 p.m. on Monday to find the driver out of the vehicle and dealing with police. No other details were released.

Unlocked car theft
Approximately $150 in US cash was stolen from an unlocked vehicle parked at a Cobblehill Road residence overnight December 15.

Coyote warning
A Dublin line resident is cautioning people to be careful when out at night, and to leash any pets after being charged by a coyote on Tuesday night.

The homeowner was working on his car at his residence in the Dublin line/ 22 Side Road area around 8 p.m., when he was startled by a coyote that ran up the driveway at him. The man, who believes the coyote may have been chasing something, started yelling and it veered off and ran into the field by the house.
