

DEATH

HOLMES: Brian Clifford
 In loving memory of a wonderful partner in life, Brian Clifford Holmes, the one I lived with, laughed with and truly loved, passed away on Tuesday, December 25, 2012 at the Belleville General Hospital in his 50th year. Brian was born on February 9, 1963 to Lloyd and Irma Holmes of Belleville. He was the loving wife of Gail Maracle and treasured father of Douglas Maracle and Laura Coe of Deseronto, Jessica Thomson and Bill Lawrence of Deseronto and Jakob Gudgeon-Holmes of Barrie, Ontario. Dear brother of Robert Holmes of Bloomfield, Ontario and Sandra & Calvin Conley of Stirling, Ontario. Brian will be sadly missed by his niece and nephews and all his grandchildren. A special thank you to all of Brian's Auntie's & Uncle's and especially his parents Lloyd and Irma for all their love and support at this time. Also thank you for the continuing love and support from my family, Scott, Nita and Wendy Maracle. A memorial service will be held in the spring. For further information on the memorial please contact Gail Maracle.

IN MEMORIAM

ACRI: Rosanna
 In loving memory of a dear wife and Mother, Rosanna M. Acri who passed away January 13, 2012.
*When evening shades are falling,
 And we sit in quiet alone,
 To our hearts come a longing,
 If she only could come home.*
*Friends may think we have forgotten,
 When at times they see us smile,
 But they little know the heartaches,
 Our smiles hide all the while.*
 Sadly missed by her loving husband Patrick, daughter Andrea and son William

Speel check, white out and humour

A long ago careless typo – Fairy Lake was referred to as Dairy Lake on the front page of The New Tanner – sent then editor, Harley Coles – who was married to a former proof-reader – into a fit of pique, and then a fit of laughter. He then wrote that every newspaper is plagued with “typos” at some time in its history, and while some mistakes, while lamentable, can also be actionable. He recounted one small daily newspaper in the U.S. that was plagued with a string of errors which started with the following classified. FOR SALE – R.D. Jones has one sewing machine for sale. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him cheap. The next day the following appeared in the classified columns. NOTICE: We regret having erred in R.D. Jones' ad yesterday. It should have read: One sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 and ask for Mrs. Kelly, she lives with him and 7 p.m. On Wednesday, the newspaper came out with a bold face notice in the classified columns. It said: R.D. Jones has informed us that he has received several annoying telephone calls because of the error we made in his classified ad yesterday. His ad stands corrected as follows: FOR SALE – R.D. Jones has one sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 after 7 p.m., and ask for Mrs. Kelly who loves with him. The final smashing sequence came out in the newspaper the very next day. It read: NOTICE – “I R.D. Jones has no sewing machine for sale. I smashed it. Don't call 958 as the telephone has been taken out. I have not been carrying on with Mrs. Kelly. Until yesterday she was my housekeeper, but she quit. From the Swampscott (Massachusetts) Reporter: Two glitches were made in the Old Style Corn Chowder recipe submitted by Joe Green of the Sail Loft for the Wooden Spoon column. First, add one big onion, not one bag of onions. Second.... From the San Angelo (Texas) Standard: CORRECTION: First place winner of the St. Valentines Day Massacre Chili Cook-off last weekend at Circle Bar Truck Corral near Ozona was the Ore-house Chili team of San Antonio rather than the Whorehouse Chili team as was inadvertently announced in the Sunday and Monday editions of the Standard Times. The S-T regrets the error and any embarrassment it may have caused members of the chili team.
