Impaired drivers

A Georgetown man and a Gravenhurst man were both charged with impaired driving last week. The 45-year-old Georgetown man was stopped on the Ninth Line near Five Sideroad when police spotted a car travelling north in the south-bound lane Wednesday. The 18-year-old Gravenhurst man was involved in a single-vehicle accident on Wildwood Rd. near Erin St. in Glen Williams. Both will appear in court Feb. 27.

$140 cash taken

Police say someone entered a home at Lot 8, Con. 4, Halton Hills and stole $140 cash from atop a refrigerator. The theft occurred sometime overnight Sunday.

Loblaws shoplifting

Two items worth a total of $6.52 were taken from the Loblaws store on Guelph St., Georgetown Monday. The theft occurred at about 11.30 a.m. and a 64-year-old Georgetown woman has been charged with theft under $1,000 as a result. She will appear in court Feb. 20.

Unlocked car entered

An unlocked car door was too tempting to resist for a thief in the wee hours Saturday. Someone entered a car on Rexway Drive and took some cassette tapes. But it seems the thief did not appreciate the owner's taste in music — the tapes were found later just down the street.

Easement

Installing storm sewers, the Town will ask Halton Region for an easement over its road accessing the Georgetown Water Pollution Control Plant. General Committee Monday night approved the staff recommendation for the easement which is Georgetown and District High School will be saying farewell at the end of this semester to retiring history teacher Tom Lightfoot. The 62-year-old has decided to throw in the towel after 21 years in the business. He and his wife Joan are planning to move north to Hillsburgh to retire in the home they are building there. Plans for the couple include hobby farming, fishing and just plain ol' relaxing. Prior to his teaching career, Mr. Lightfoot had farmed for a score of years. He and his wife attended a gathering at the school Monday afternoon to commemorate the teacher's departure, and accepted a retirement gift from the staff.

similar to several other agreements between the Town and Region.

17 Sdrd. reconstruction

Completion of a 17 Sdrd. reconstruction project between the Fourth and Fifth Lines has been given General Committee's approval. For the first phase of the project, councillors Monday night agreed to spend the $55,000 for tree relocation and removal, and replacement of highway and private fencing.
