

Arbolito gets rezoning

An application to rezone a Regional Rd. 13 nursery and garden centre was incorrectly referred to as Willow Creek Nursery in the Feb. 11 Week End.

The nursery is, in fact, called Arbolito Landscaping, and it was the owners of Willow Creek Nursery that were registering complaints at last week's public meeting on the Arbolito application.

Contacted by Willow Creek co-owner Mimmi Moroz, the Week End was told that her complaints dealt with the way in which Arbolito owner H. Cano is applying for the rezoning.

Moroz said she and her husband Tom started their nursery centre at the same time as Cano.

Moroz, however, applied immediately for property rezoning, and had to wait a year before receiving Town approval.

Moroz contends that Cano went ahead with his nursery and, when it was discovered his business was operating illegally, Cano described the garden centre as an existing use.

Moroz speculated that Cano is unfairly attempting to expedite the rezoning process.

"There's got to be some consistency in the way bylaws and rezoning regulations are enforced," Moroz added.

Moroz also noted that she and her husband are not opposed to the proposed use of Cano's property.

The Week End regrets the error in mixing up the names of the garden centres.

Free tax clinic

Income tax returns will be done at no charge by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario volunteers. The service is only for seniors and low income families whose single income is no higher than $14,000 without dependents or $19,000 with dependents. Dates for the Acton Library are March 7 and 15. The clinics run from 7-9 p.m. Make an appointment by calling 873-2681 or 853-0301.

Turkey Shoot

Turkey Shoot will be held Feb. 26, 1 p.m. at the Guelph Rod and Gun Club, Eden Mills. Everyone welcome.

Magician Rob Wright was Park School's own Houdini Tuesday night as he pulled a rabbit from his hat, with the help of assistant Shelley Aeri. The Georgetown school held a Valentine's Day Cabaret with several students taking part in song and dance numbers.
