Jesus called 'Peace Bridge' to heaven

By DOREEN PALMER

There is a bridge between the United States and Canada called the Peace Bridge. It is a symbol of the unity and good-will between the two countries.

There is a spiritual bridge which was built between heaven and earth to allow man access to his Creator. It is also a Peace bridge, built by God himself so that we might have peace with Him. He built it by coming to earth to live as a man, and by dying a sacrificial death to atone for the sins of man. Just as the bridge between the U.S. and Canada symbolizes good-will and peace, Jesus is out "Prince of Peace."(1)

Before Jesus' birth, His people had become over-zealous in keeping the laws to the exclusion of love for God and for one another. Jesus came to show man that love was the only way to the Father. We are saved by the grace of God, not because we can save ourselves by good deeds.

As we look to the promise of our Bridegroom's return for His bride, we begin to ponder the requirements you and I must meet to be a member of this true church which will be spared the coming tribulation on earth.

There is only one requirement. It is that we, the Bride, love Jesus, our Bridegroom!

It might be explained this way.

It has been said that a Christian is free to live in whatever way he wishes. This may sound presumptuous but, if we truly love Jesus, we will NOT WANT to do anything which would make Him unhappy. We will obey because we love Him, not to try to build up brownie-points with Him.

Love for Jesus, our Bridegroom, who died as a Lamb to set us free from sin in place of the Old Testament Lambs, is essential. Because we love Him we, too, will desire more than anything else to get rid of our sin to please Him.

This century will end 2,000 years since Jesus' birth. Peter said that a thousand years are as one day to our Lord (2), so the end of this century will be the third 'day' on His calendar. We remember that Jesus rose from the dead on the third day, so we now look to the next few years as the time of His reappearance as the Bridegroom. The Bride must quickly prepare herself to become the church without spot or blemish for which He will return. (3)

When Jesus' kingdom is finally established, everyone in the world will join together to praise Him.

"Alleluia, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice and give honor to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his Wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white, for the fine linen is righteousness of saints"(4).

We are saved because of Jesus' love for us (5). He makes us righteous, because all our own righteousness is as filthy rags (6). If we return the love He has shown us, and endure patiently, He has promised that we will be "kept from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth."(7).

Jesus is our Peace Bridge to get into the kingdom.
