

General meeting, awards banquet close 88-89 season

Acton club honors its top curlers

By WAYNE AITKEN

The final event of the 88/89 curling season being the annual general meeting and awards night was held at the Curling Club last month.

During the meeting portion of the evening President Barb Munro and other members of the Board of Directors summarized the past year's activities. All the various committees submitted reports and financial statements for the information of the general membership, which clearly showed the club is being well maintained and is in a financially sound position. The Board of Directors and members at large presented various proposals for changing the draws for the next year. All proposals were discussed and voted on with the only significant change being that the men's competitive league will be run on Monday night at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. with the present Monday mixed league being combined with the Wednesday mixed league. Don Buttenham, the acting maintenance chairman noted that five tenders had been received for the replacement of the asphalt shingle roof with a new colored steel roof, and the low tender was accepted with construction scheduled to begin in late May.

As the last item of business for the meeting Barb Munro noted that she and Darrel Greenly, Tony Rouse and Rolie Bradley would be remaining on the board for the next year. Nominations for the remaining board positions were submitted and the additional board members elected for a two-year term are: Dave Dunn, Mary Gair, Pete Vidler, Toni Lozinski, Bruce McArthur and Jim Lindsay.

Following a brief intermission Tony Rouse, on behalf of the board, thanked all the members that assisted with the operation of the club this past season with a special thanks to Del Hickling, Dugald Dick and Dave Dunn.

Wayne Aitken then chaired the presentation of the 1988/89 trophies for annual competition throughout the year.

The winner of the Monday night mixed social league first draw were Tom Dearing, Doris DeHueck, Gord Wellon and Peggy Harris, who were presented with the Adams trophy. Winners of the second draw for the Community Credit Union trophy were Bill Kately, Bill Holding, Gord Wellon and Martin Oehlich.

The Tuesday night ladies first draw winners were Marilyn McArthur, Jeannette Greenly, Marg Hynds and Gail McArthur who were presented with the Bud Kentner trophy by Karen Caissie. The Gordon Dawe Real Estate trophy for the winners of the second draw was also presented by Karen to Marilyn McArthur's rink of Linda Bailey, Gwen Hay and Gail McArthur.

The Wednesday night mixed draw for the first half and the Molson Golden trophy was won by the rink of Darryl Greenly, Mary Francis Dick, Paul Marshall and Donna Schrader. The Park Tilford trophy for the second half winners was won by Rob Schrader, Mary Smith, Dave Neely and Doug Hogg.

The Proplastex trophy, presented by Fred Archibald, to the Thursday afternoon ladies first draw winners went to Donna Cripps, Sue Buttenham, Anne Perry and Marg Hynds. Anne Ridley, the organizer of the Thursday afternoon draws, was the winner along with her rink of Joanne Bailey, Anne Perry and Bridget Kent, of the second draw and the Nielsons Clothing trophy.

The Goy Cartage annual trophy for the winners of the Thursday men's social league first draw was presented to Chuck Peebles' rink of Carl Rosenquist, Paul Cotter and Ken McClure. The second half winners of Joe Brown, Fred Shortill, Jim Cavasin and Bill Scotland were presented with the Concepts, Design and Construction award by Dave Dunn.

The awards for the men's competitive draws which ran all season on Tuesdays and Wednesdays were presented as follows:

- overall draw winner -- Pete Vidler's rink with Joe Brown, Scott Brown and Jim Cavasin

- A-Flight winners for the Bank of

Montreal trophy were Fred Archibald, Bill Lewis, Bruce McArthur and Rolie Bradley

- the B-flight winners were Bob Reid, Wayne Compton, Gord Parker and Glen Baker

The Friday night mixed social league, where you choose your own rink for the season proved very successful for the rink of Bruce and Marilyn McArthur and their son-in-law Paul and daughter Joanne Robinson, as they were the overall winners of the league for the Dan Hamilton trophy, plus they won the A-Flight playoff for the prized Fyfe Somerville trophy.

The Toronto Dominion Trophy for the Friday night B-Flight playoff winner was won by the very popular and exciting group of Lyle and Marie Pruetter, Tony Rouse, Barb Curry and Jim Lindsay.

All of the recipients of awards expressed their thanks to the draw sponsors and confirmed what we all knew was a very enjoyable and successful year for the entire membership.

Rebels rebound from Reding loss with softball win

Georgetown District High School girls softball team got back on the winning track last week against E.C. Drury at the Fairgrounds.

Last week the Rebels suffered an 18-6 loss to East Halton rivals Bishop Reding Royals. But in their next game the Georgetown crew netted an 18-8 win over the Spartans to even their first half record to 2-2.

The Rebels wasted little time, jumping out to an 8-0 first inning lead. The fourth inning was also a big one for Georgetown as the Rebels added six more tallies in that frame.

Sandy Weeks had the win on the mound for the Rebels while Carolyn Stewart came on in relief. Offensively both Weeks and Stewart had good days as Weeks' three hits brought home five runs and Stewart was a perfect four-for-four with three runs batted in. Joy Swain had two doubles and brought home a pair of runs.

Rebels' coach Fred Kotani was pleased with the win because it kept the local team in the hunt for a playoff spot. With the Rebels having to face their four league rivals in the second half of the season Kotani figures his club must win all of its games in order to secure a playoff spot on its own.

Kinsmen loop all set to start 1989 ball year

By DEE DEE HAYNES

With just one week left until the beginning of regular season play, (Seniors -- Tuesday, May 23, Intermediate and Juniors -- Thursday, May 25), I would like to welcome new and returning coaches and players to the 1989 season.

This season promises to be the best of the past seasons and to shed light onto those coming.

So to all players and coaches, best of luck to you all.

Special Days:

All age divisions:
Thursday, June 8 -- Picture Day

"If we don't win we could still get in the playoffs, but we'd have to count on someone else losing," Kotani said. "I think we can win our four last games because during our tournament a couple of weeks back (where Rebels emerged with title win) the girls showed a level of play they're capable of but perhaps we've sat back somewhat. But now they know they've got to play at that level all the time."

The Rebels return to league play Tuesday afternoon hosting White Oaks.

PR assistant is promoted to director

Greg Thompson, Senior Vice-president of Marketing for the Ontario Jockey Club has announced the appointment of Kathy Wade to the position of Director of Publicity -- Harness Racing Division.

Wade, 26, has been Assistant Director of Harness Marketing and Publicity since June 1985 and takes over the reins as Director from Mike Rutsey effective May 22.

Wade graduated from Durham College of Applied Arts and Technology in Oshawa with a Sports Administration Honors Diploma in 1982.

The Mississauga resident has a strong knowledge of the sport having been born into a harness racing family. She admits to being a regular race fan since the age of seven.

She brings with her several years of hands on experience in harness promotions and publicity as well as a comprehensive knowledge and personal appreciation of the sport.

Wade has served as past Vice-president and is currently a Director for Harness Reporters of Canada and is a member of the North American Harness Publicists Association.
