

McMichael Gallery March Break attraction

Celebrate the spirit of the Canadian landscape at the McMichael Canadian Art Collection. Every day from March 11-18, the McMichael Gallery offers something special for every one!

The McMichael has built a reputation as one of the foremost collections of the Group of Seven and their counterparts, and for its growing collection of Indian and Inuit works. The gallery is also known for the fun and educational activities it offers. In celebration of the 25th anniversary of the collection, there will be an exciting variety of fun-filled family programs centred around the theme "Spirit of the Land."

* Learn firsthand about landscape painting by watching artist-in-residence Lena Leszczynski as she demonstrates her art every day between 11 and 4 p.m.

* Take one of the free conducted tours of Landscapes of Canada, or our twenty-fifth anniversary exhibits: A Vision of Canada, From Tapawingo to Public Treasure and Inuit Art at the McMichael.

* Contribute your own unique ideas and artistic skill to the Landscape Mural. Choose a section from our photo and add your creative flair to this 'group' project.

* Design and create your own Landscape Sketchbook. Step-by-step instruction and all materials will be provided. Tickets, at $2 each, will be available in the lobby. (Get your tickets early as workshops are limited to 15 participants per hour.)

* Trek through the gallery, carefully viewing the landscapes around you, searching for clues. Answer all the questions on the Activity Sheets and you will win a prize!

* Stop at the McMichael Drawing Booth, study the view of the Humber Valley, and create a landscape to take home with you.

* Visit all the regions of Canada and meet the artists who work there at the Film and Video Festival: "Across This Land."

At the McMichael there is something for visitors of all ages. Come for the fun and excitement and learn more about art along the way!

The McMichael Gallery is located just 30 minutes north of Toronto, on Islington Avenue, in the village of Kleinburg.
