

'Sweet Water Day'

Crawford Lake is issuing an invitation to enjoy festive activities during Sweet Water Day, March 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Highlights during the day include 'native style' maple syrup demonstrations, and legends and story telling in the reconstructed Indian Village and longhouse. Tasty bannock (corn bread) will be served along with freshly made maple syrup.

A guided moccasin walk through Crawford Lake's forest will bring the participants closer to the natural environment. A taste of one of nature's teas will complement the end of the hike.

The auditorium will be alive with "foot stomping" folk music performed by live entertainers with a welcome to sing along.

There are crafts galore in the Kids' Room along with a special "Maple Scavenger Hunt" for the whole family to take part in.

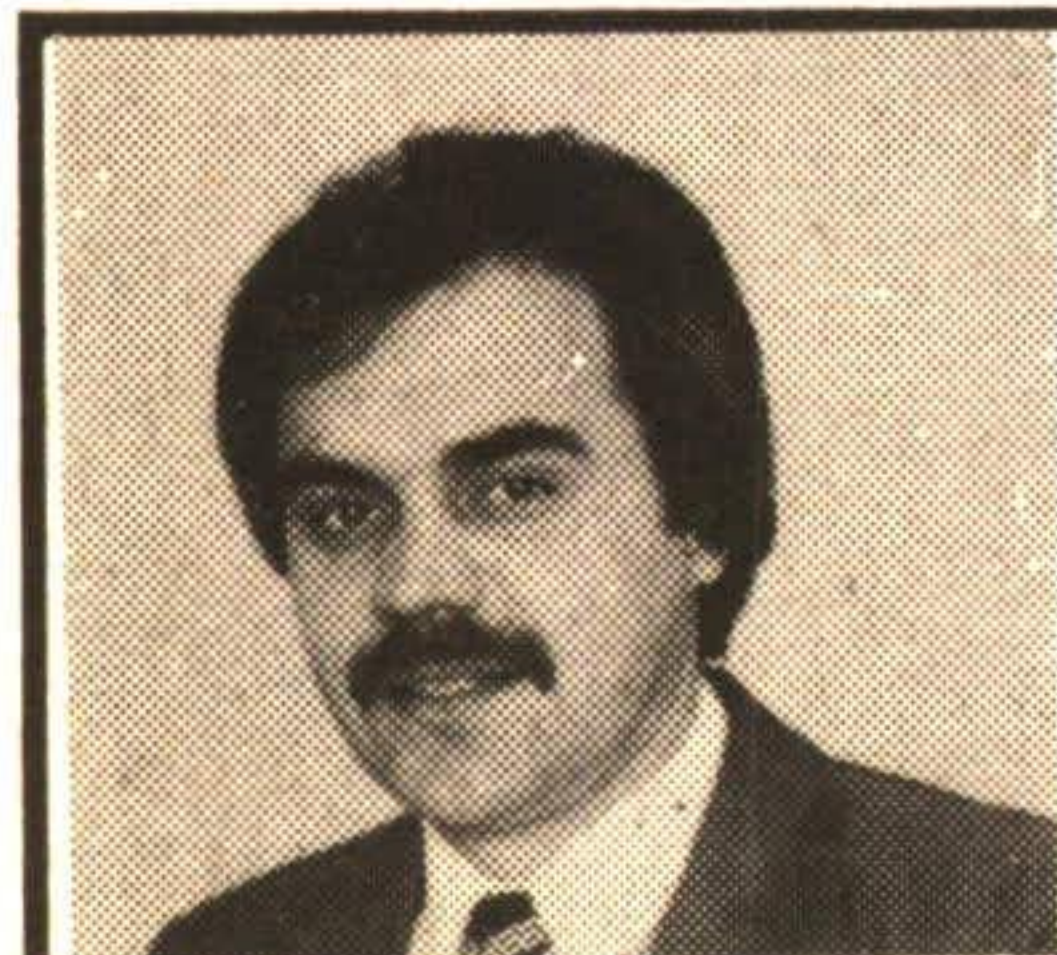

Maple syrup products will be for sale in the gift shop.

Crawford Lake is located on the corner of Steeles Avenue and Guelph Line—15 miles north of the Q.E.W., or four miles south of Hwy 401. For more information, call the Halton Region Conservation Authority at 336-1158 (weekdays) or Crawford Lake Conservation Area at 854-0234 (weekends).

Georgetown Citizen of the Year, Jessie Hayes, gets a regional kiss from Halton chairman Pete Pomeroy at the dinner feting her on Tuesday night in the Lions hall.
