

Four vehicles were involved in an accident at the intersection of Guelph St. and Sinclair Ave. in Georgetown Wednesday morning. Halton Hills firefighters were called to the scene because of a gasoline spill which resulted from the accident. No injuries were reported.

Lifestyle programs get $25,000 funding

Three short-term, 'healthy lifestyle' programs are to begin immediately in the Halton Region. Worth a total of $25,000, all three are being entirely financed by the Ontario Ministry of Health and approved by the Halton District Health Council.

H.E.L.P. (Healthy Eating and Lifestyles Project) is sponsored by Halton Roman Catholic School Board and has received $10,000 in funding.

Directed towards elementary school children, its aim is to heighten awareness of the combined values of fitness and good nutrition. Participating schools operated by the Board will individually create projects designed to improve nutritional habits and fitness: teams of teachers, students and, possibly, parents will work together to develop projects; prizes will be awarded.

Halton Healthy Weight Program is sponsored by Halton Regional Health Department and has received $5,000 in funding.

Targeted at women in the 20 to 55 age range, the objective is to encourage a positive yet realistic attitude to body size and weight. An eight week mutual aid concept is geared to those women who may be preoccupied with food and body weight and who have been involved in unhealthy dieting and/or eating practices.

Halton Healthy Lifestyles Coalition is sponsored by Halton Regional Health Department and received $10,000 in funding.

The objective is to build a coalition of individuals, groups and agencies interested in promoting 'healthy lifestyle' choices. This year, the group is planning events and activities promoting the message that good nutrition can be fun.

Local residents charged after drug investigation

A four month undercover investigation by Halton Regional Police has led to the arrest of 25 people — 14 from Halton Hills — for drug related offences.

According to a police spokesman, the investigation was started in late January by Halton's Drug Squad and enlisted the assistance of Durham Regional Police and "in its latter stages" Peel Regional Police.

The project, known as ATEN, "utilized an undercover police officer working and socializing in the Georgetown area," the spokesman said.

Twenty-five people ranging in age from under 18 to 36 years, have been charged with a host of offences including trafficking narcotics, possession of narcotics, possession for the purpose of trafficking, break and enter and possession of stolen property.

Police said more arrests are expected. Residents from Ballinafad, Terra Cotta and Bramalea have also been charged, the spokesman said.

Palette and Pencil Club holds Spring show May 6

On May 6, Palette and Pencil Club members will hold the first show and sale the Club has held at The Cottage. This show is not only the beginning of something new but it is to celebrate...the 15th year of operation for the Credit Valley Artisans, its association with The Cottage in Georgetown's Cedarvale Park and also the advent of Spring.

This will be the first time the Club's members will have hung a show of artwork with a theme. Visitors coming to view the show will be asked to pick their favorites from those pictures depicting the 'Spring' theme.

This will add a sense of competition for our members to see which painting and artist garners the most votes.

The show will be available for viewing from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday, May 6. That is just one week ahead of Mother's Day and a good opportunity to pick up a lovely gift for a lovely mother.

There is no charge for admission and of course everyone is welcome.

All of the pictures exhibited will be for sale. There will also be light refreshments available.

Cedarvale Park is at Main St. and Maple Ave. in Georgetown.

Meat store hosts BBQ for hospital

Georgetown's M&M Meat Shop is celebrating its first birthday in town Saturday. And to say thanks to the community the company will be holding a barbeque at its Guelph St. location.

Proceeds from the barbeque, where a hamburger and a drink cost $1, will be going to Georgetown Memorial Hospital.

"This first year has been pretty good," Clarita Salinas, a co-owner of the local store said. "This is our way of saying thank you to the community."

Salinas hopes to raise about $1,000 for hospital capital equipment.

The barbeque runs Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will be held at M&M Meat Shop, 211 Guelph St.
