Acton break-in one of many
in Halton Hills

By SERGEANT DAVE ATKINSON
Halton Police and Crime Stoppers are seeking information on a break-in which occurred on Wednesday, April 11.

Some time after midnight, a two storey business complex located at the corner of Queen Street and Meadvale Road in Acton was entered by removing a ventilation cover on the roof and breaking through the ceiling into the second floor offices. These offices were searched and some cash was stolen.

The culprits then attempted to gain entry to a first floor variety store by smashing a two foot hole in the floor of a second floor office, but were unsuccessful.

The culprits then exited the building via the roof.

Halton Regional Police report that during the first three months of 1990 there have been a total of 70 breaks and enters of all types in the Town of Halton Hills. Police have successfully cleared 31.14% of these cases. From a total of 445 reported criminal offenses in the community, 251 remain unsolved.
