

Antique tractors

More than 30 antique tractors — including on of the largest displays of operating steam engines in the province — and 50 antique gasoline engines, will puff and whistle their way into the Ontario Agricultural Museum July 21 and 22. Open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., you can reach the museum by taking Hwy. 401 to Milton exit 320 or 312 north and follow the signs.

Starting a small business

The Georgetown Library is offering a four-night course called "Starting Your Own Business". Ian Donnelly of Bridan Management Consultants will be presenting this seminar on how to plan, finance and organize a small business. Informative guest speakers and handout material will be included with your $42 registration fee. The course will run from 7-9 p.m. on consecutive Thursdays starting Sept. 6. Please register early at the Georgetown or Acton Library as space is limited. For more information call 873-2681.

Living with Cancer

A support group for patients, family and friends meeting at Peel Memorial Hospital, 7 p.m. on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of every month.

You can help

Are you looking for work experience or do you just want to help someone in need? Agencies in Halton Hills need people who can help a young child learn basic life skills or work in a public relations position with a local agency. Call the Volunteer Centre and we'll match your time, skills and interests with one of the many volunteer opportunities in our community. Call us at 877-3219.

Toastmasters Club

We fix your knocking knees, dry mouths, sweaty palms, blank minds, so you can express yourself clearly and confidently. Weekly meetings on Mondays at 8 p.m., Glen Williams Town Hall. Call Roger 877-6709, John 877-8028 or Pauline 873-0793.

Pregnant teens

Prenatal classes designed specifically for teens. No charge, transportation available. Pregnancy counselling available. Call Susan Stuart at 844-5502 or contact the Public Health Department at 877-2238 for more information.
