Susan Early weds Jamie Galbraith, Rev. Walter Beecham inducted

By KAY WILSON

A pretty summer wedding took place on July 14, when Susan Early and Jamie Galbraith were married in Grace Anglican Church, Brampton.

Susan is the daughter of Gordon and Peggy Early of R.R. 1, Norval and now of Barry's Bay, and Jamie is the son of Doug and Betty Galbraith of Delhi, Ontario.

Organist was Bruce Nuhm and soloist was Helen Nuhm, who sang The Lord's Prayer and Wedding Prayer. Both are cousins of the bride.

Susan, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a Victorian style gown, with shoulder length veil.

Attending the bride as Maid of honor was Kerry Sutherland, and bridesmaids were Lisa Taylor, Karen Booth, and Kathy Early. Junior bridesmaid was Katie Hall. All wore cocktail length gowns, the maid of honor in blue and the bridesmaids in pink.

The groom was attended by Joe Bratley as Best Man. Ushers were Paul Garrett, Tony Hubinger, and Wade Parsons. Ring Bearer was Everett Rooke. All wore grey tuxedo's.

The bridal party were taken from the church in a cavalcade of three antique Model T cars. Ray Whaley's 1923 Ford Touring, Gordon Hume's 1927 Ford Touring, and Spencer Wilson's 1927 Ford Coach. Following picture taking at Chingacousy Park, the bridal party were taken to the Holiday Inn for the wedding reception. Master of ceremonies at the reception was Brian Batstone, a friend of the family. Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple are residing in Simcoe, Ontario.

Prior to their wedding the couple were entertained at several showers. Jamie's aunt, Dot Plat, of Simcoe, hosted a miscellaneous shower for the family. Kathy Early, sister of the bride and Kerry Sutherland, hosted a personal and linen shower at Kathy's home. Lisa Taylor of Brampton entertained at a kitchen shower, and Joan Booker of Fergus held a miscellaneous shower. The Pinegrove Community held a presentation party and Bruce Thatcher and Anne Wilson presented a brass table lamp and a sum of money. Susan Alexander read the address.

A Covenanting Service was held for the three point charge of Home, Huttonville and Norval United Churches, with Huttonville hosting the service on Sunday evening last.

Rev. Norman Green opened the service with the hymn "Stand up, Stand up, for Jesus." Following the scriptures, Rev. Neil Parker of Inglewood gave the sermon on "Total Commitment." A joint choir of the three churches sang a special number, "Come into My Heart Lord Jesus," with Glenn Laidlaw and Lorraine Lawrence taking the duet part.

Rev. John Smith of the Laurel and Camilla churches had charge of the Covenanting Service and inducted the Rev. Walter Beecham into the churches of Home, Huttonville and Norval. The hymn "Breathe on Me Breath of God" closed the service. A social hour followed.

LEN TUITMAN AND STAFF PRESENT
GREEN THUMB GARDENING
FALL FRUITING SHRUBS

To add interest, color and birds to your fall and winter landscape don't forget to include shrubs that bear attractive fruit. The fall and winter is often considered a disappointing time in the landscape. But with the addition of some appropriate shrubs the fall and winter will be another bright, enjoyable season.

Numerous members of the viburnum family are attractive in the spring with their large showy flowers. However, in the fall they bear clusters of bright berries. Particularly noteworthy is the Highbush Cranberry and Dwarf Cranberry. Best of all they are some of the easiest shrubs to grow too! They are adaptable to most soil conditions including moist soils. They perform best in full sun but also perform well in partial shade.

Hardy shrub roses are also attractive in more than one season. During the summer they display showy, fragrant flowers. After flowering, large, plump orange-red hips develop. These persist on the shrubs long into the winter.

Staghorn Sumac shrubs change from a dark green to a stunning scarlet color in the fall. They also produce large pyramidal-shaped bright red fruits that persist on the shrub throughout the winter.

Coral beauty cotoneaster is a broadleaf evergreen that is often used as a ground cover in the landscape. Late summer their small, round fruits quickly change to a crimson red. Although each berry is the size of a pea, they are so numerous that they are very attractive.

Each week Christine Cole of Tuitman's Garden Centre and Landscaping, Highway 25, 1 mile south of Acton, 853-2480, will be presenting helpful tips and information to assist you in creating your garden showplace!
