

Mother's group needs volunteer

A volunteer is needed to co-lead a parenting support group in Georgetown with Tracey Braiden, a Sheridan College student.

The group meets every Thursday morning from September until June. Mothers enjoy discussions and activities while their children participate in their own program.

Tracey is hoping to find a co-leader who will have some parenting experience, and be non-judgemental, accepting and a good listener.

For information, call Tracey or Corrie Galloway at 878-2375.
