Hurricanes come close in Oshawa

The Canada Brick Midget "AAA" Halton Hurricanes took part in the Oshawa "AAA" Midget Classic Tournament last weekend and came close but no cigar.

The top two teams in each five team division advanced to the semi finals after round robin play.

Oshawa, Welland and Halton were tied with five points each. Ties were broken by: 1) results between tied teams; 2) wins; 3) goals for; 4) goals against. Welland advanced because of goals for and Oshawa went on for their goals against record which was two goals better than Halton's.

In the first game the Hurricanes faced off against Oshawa, the defending champions, and upset the hosts 2-1. Canada Brick's Peter Downs was sensational in goal as he made numerous exceptional stops and was voted game MVP.

After furious action at both ends, the Hurricanes scored first with :51 second remaining in the second period. Jake Mashinter passed to pointman Brad Amato who cruised in and blasted one in on the top shelf.

Oshawa evened the score at the 10:30 mark of the third. With a mere 16 seconds left on the clock the stage was set for a hero and Canada Brick came up with one. Todd Mulley moved the puck to Trevor Elinesky in a goal mouth scramble. After three whacks at the puck Elinesky scored to give Halton the 2-1 win.

Game two was against Team Toledo, Ohio, and more heroes were required for a 3-2 victory. Game MVP Gio Piazza completed a come from behind win with a goal with 2:11 left on the clock.

Canada Brick scored first as Piazza moved the puck from behind the net to Mike Cox who converted from the slot early in the first.

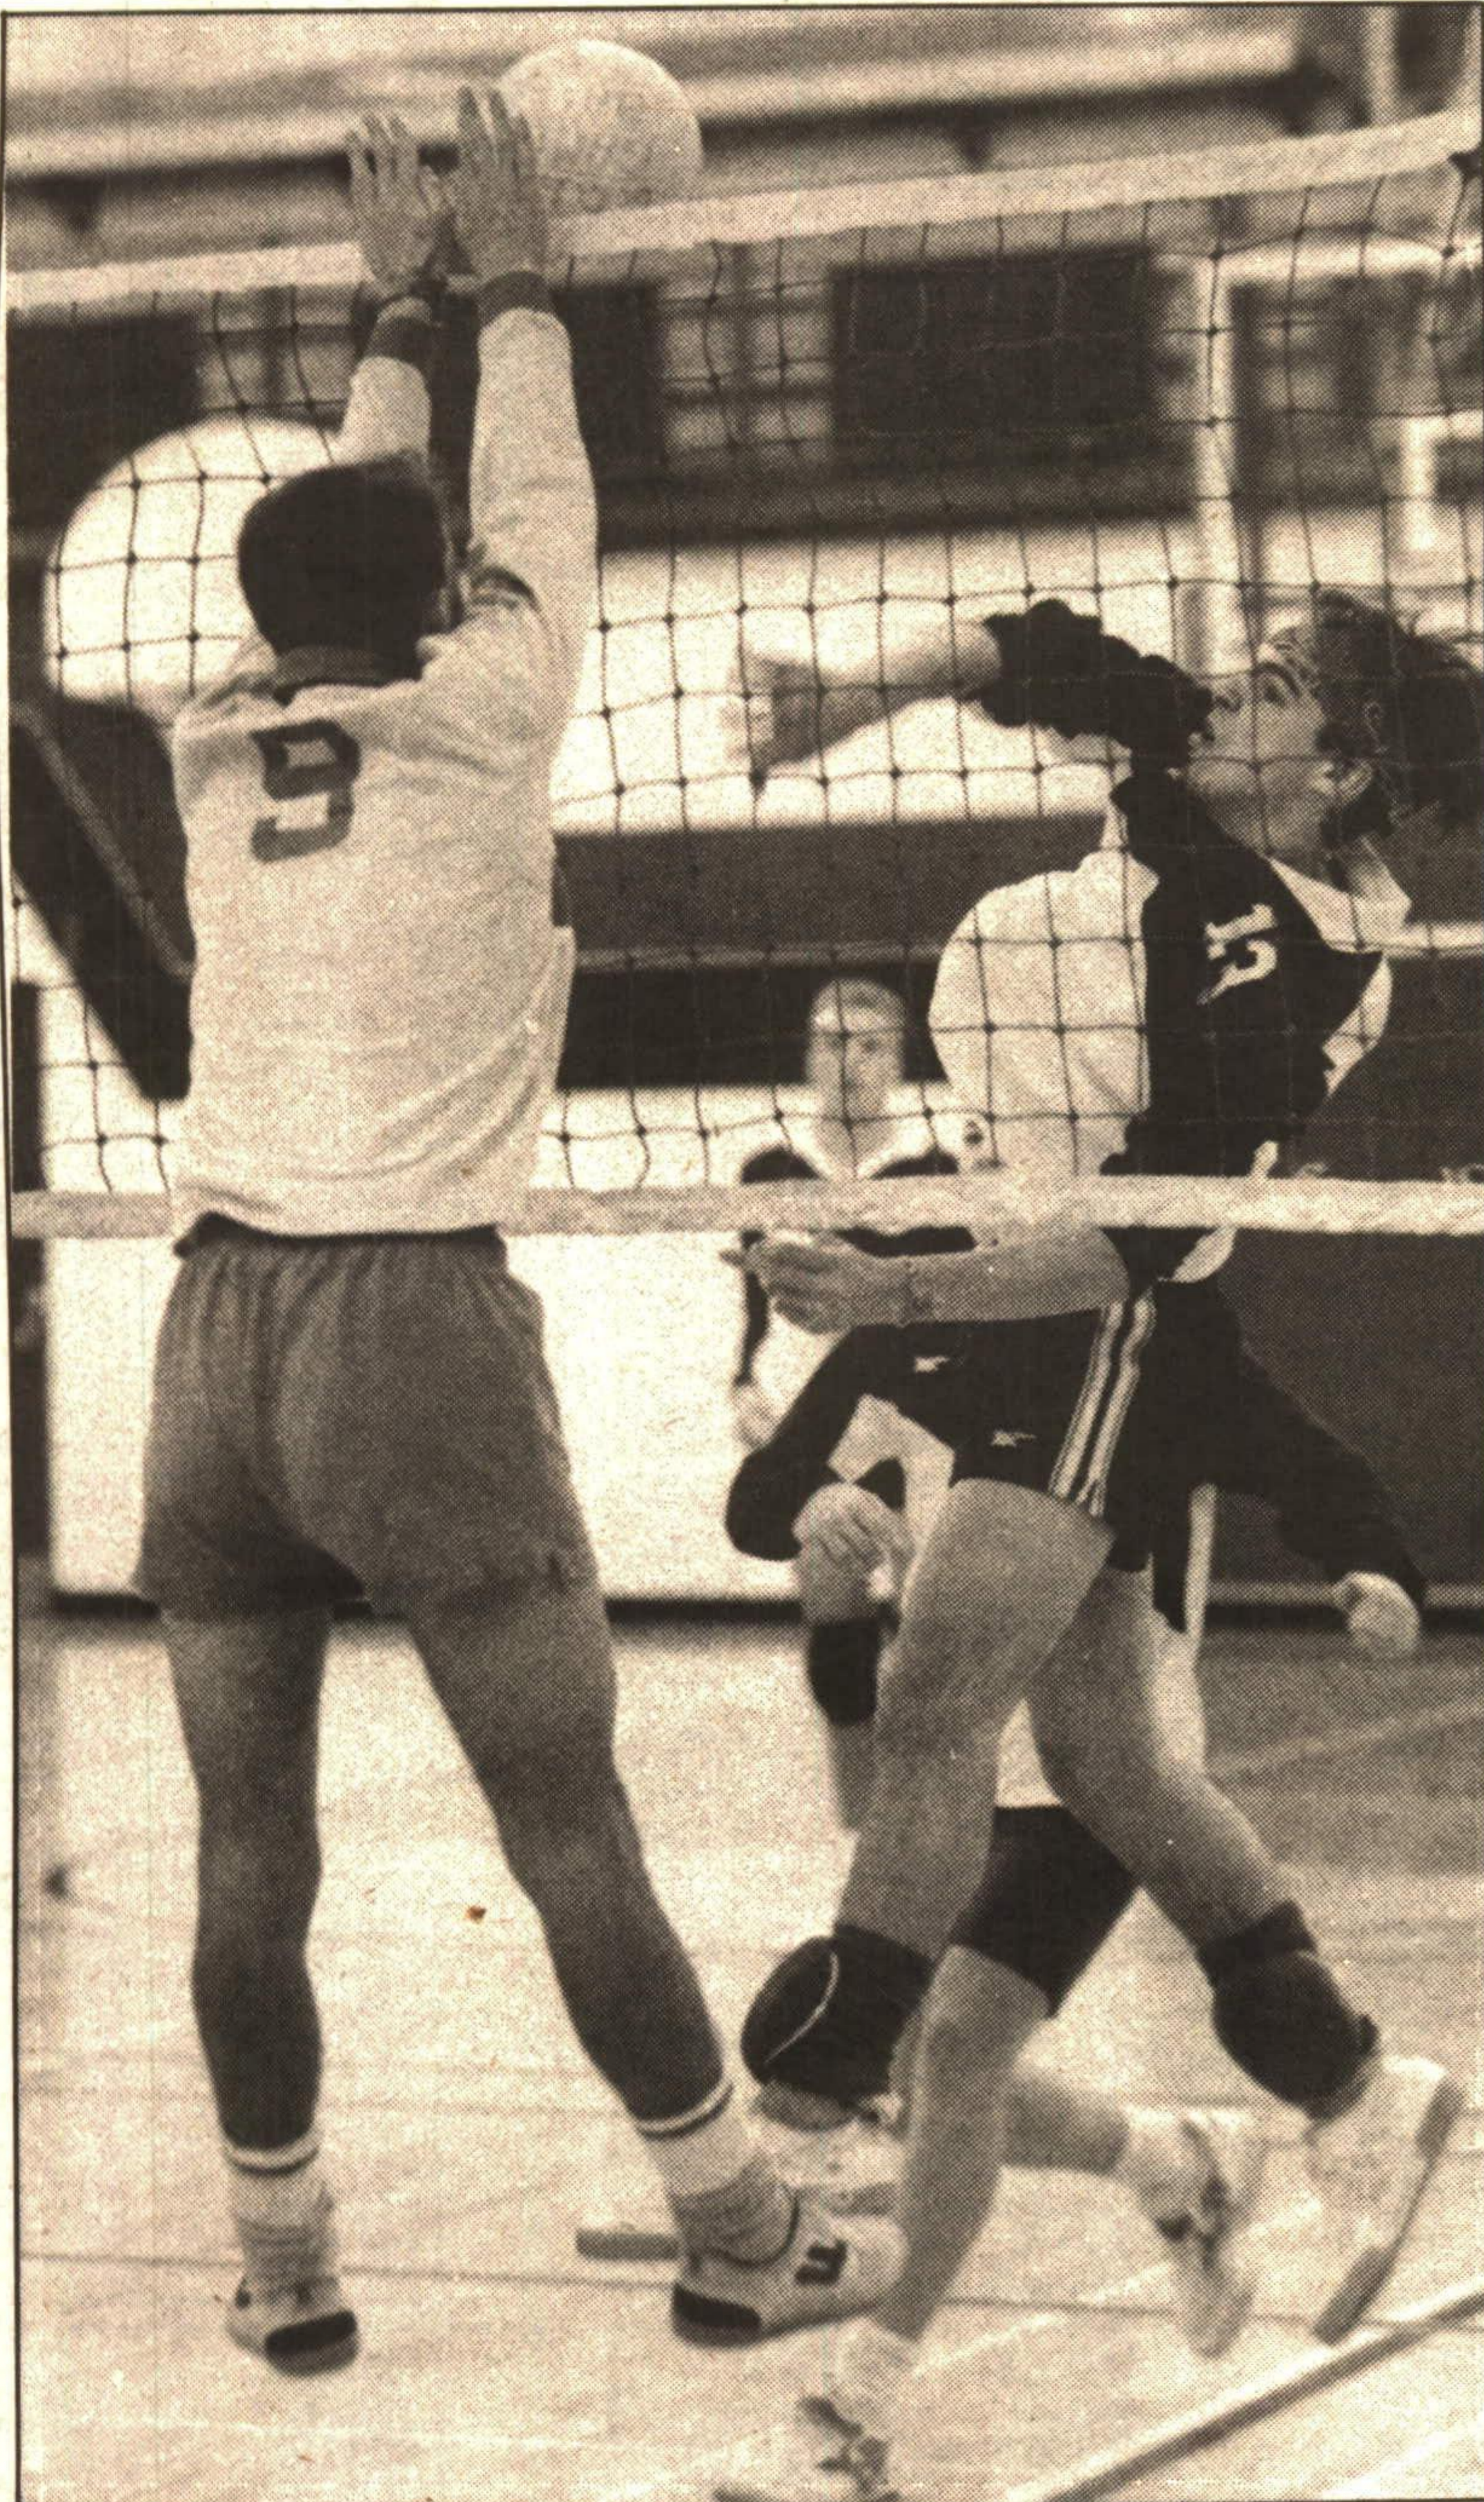

Toledo went ahead 2-1 in the second with :24 seconds left in the period, Piazza took a pass from Mike McPhail and fired a slapshot that found the mark just inside the post to tie the game. It looked as if this one would go down as a tie, until Toledo made the mistake of taking a penalty with 2:15 remaining.

In the ensuing faceoff Pat Hennenberry drew the puck to defenceman Damien Dubien on the right point. Dubien passed to partner Wade Burrows on the left side. Burrows' slapshot rebounded off the goalie's pads and Piazza pounced on it and drilled in home for the 3-2 victory.

Kitchener was next, and Canada Brick again had to fight back from a 3-0 deficit to come up with a tie.

Cox started the comeback with an unassisted goal in the second period. Amato blasted his second of the tourney from Mulley to make it 3-2 before the end of the second. At the 11:12 mark of the third, game MVP Hennenberry connected from the slot with assists going to Cox and Dubien to tie the game and earn one point.

In their final game, Halton ran into a brick wall of their own as they were blanked 3-0 by the eventual tourney silver medalists Welland (Hamilton won the gold). The Welland goaltender earned game MVP honors along with Halton's Cox, who he stopped all game long.

VOLLEYBALL BATTLES

It's been a bust week for the Georgetown Rebels Junior Boys volleyball team. They finished off their regular season against Nelson and then met up with M.M. Robinson in the opening round of playoffs. Georgetown won that match up 2-1, earning the right to meet E.C. Drury. The locals couldn't find the winning combination against the Milton school dropping two straight matches.

Peterboro claims win over Raiders

The Peterboro Junior B Roadrunners picked up their first win of the Central Ontario Junior B hockey season Tuesday evening—at the expense of the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders.

The Raiders, who are just two points ahead of Peterboro in the battle for the final playoff spot in the early going, have been looking for a victory since winning a pair in mid-October.

"We're starting to push," admitted general manager Joe Walsh after Tuesday's loss. "The guys are trying to do it themselves. They just have to work through it."

Walsh feels the pressure of the losing sting may be starting to take its toll on the roster. "All the parts are there," Walsh said. "We're not the doormats of the league. We've got to keep believing in ourselves. It will come."

It could have come Tuesday according to Walsh, as the Raiders outshot their hosts 32-22 but came away on the short end of a 5-2 decision. "We had the chances. We couldn't get the breaks," added the GM. Leading 2-1 in the second period the Raiders had chances to take control with a 3-1 lead but instead Peterboro scored with seven seconds left to tie the contest and they never looked back.

Three unanswered third period goals sealed Georgetown's fate.

The Raiders relied on the line of Blair Catherwood, Scott Humber and Acton Sabres centre Jeff Shevalier for their offense. Shevalier and Catherwood each scored one and assisted on another while Humber helped on both goals.

Walsh is optimistic that his squad will get back in the win column and feels they could restore the four point bulge with a win over Peterboro at the Gordon Alcott Arena tonight (Saturday) at 7:30 p.m.

"I feel good about Saturday," Walsh added. "I think we'll break out of it, all the parts are there."

RAIDER RAP: Raiders will be without Adam Hagen or Dan Fournell tonight. Both will sit out suspensions as a result of the game in Peterboro. Newcomer Grant Dexter should be in the line-up, however. Dexter comes to the Raiders from Tillsonburg. He has transferred from Western to York University.
