Literacy Awards

The Canadian Literacy Volunteer Awards will be presented at the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre on Thursday, Nov. 15. These awards are sponsored by the Canadian Library Association and the Government of Canada, in honor of International Literacy Year, 1990. Presentations will be made by Garth Turner M.P. at 5 p.m. and a reception will follow.

Vietnamese speaker

A volunteer who speaks Vietnamese fluently is needed to work with a family that has recently moved here. The family needs help in finding out about community resources and learning the skills they need to cope with life in Canada. If you speak Vietnamese and could spend some time with this family, please call Corrie Galloway at the Halton Children's Aid Society at 844-8211.

Museum Exhibit

The Chisholms and Erchless, a new major exhibition at the Custom House of Oakville Museum, is about 150 years in the six-generational span of Oakville's first family and their home. Told in photographs, documents, maps, letters and artifacts, the exhibition will run from Nov. 3, 1990 to Oct. 1991. It heralds the 1991 opening for the estate house, as part of the Oakville Museum complex. Oakville Museum, 8 Navy St., Oakville, is open Tuesday to Friday, 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., weekends and holiday Mondays noon to 5 p.m.

Youth For Christ

Youth For Christ, a non-profit group working with young people, presents Whiteheart in concert Thursday, Nov. 15. Special guest David Mullen and Oneblood will also be at the Good Samaritan Community Church, behind Globe Nursery at Hwy. 7. Tickets are $15 in advance or $17 at the door. They are available at Christian bookstores or by calling (416) 574-6722 or 648-2128.

Big Sisters

There is room for your daughter in the Big Sisters program. Call Lois, 878-0378 or Karin, 878-6487.

Free information

Information about cancer can be obtained free of charge by calling the Cancer Information Service at 1-800-263-6750.

Guys and Dolls

Guys and Dolls will be staged at the John Elliot Theatre in Georgetown beginning Nov. 15 for 12 performances. Tickets are on sale at Royal Lepage Real Estate on Guelph St. for $11 each. The Gala performance Nov. 15 will benefit the North Halton Association for the Developmentally Handicapped. Coffee and dessert will be served in the gallery after the show, but tickets for this show are going fast. As indication of support to NHADH, purchase tickets for the Gala through Anne Sidebottom, 877-5557.

Volunteers needed

Volunteers are needed to provide support and information to young pregnant women to enable them to make informed decisions regarding their future life choices. Call Susan Stuart at 844-5502.

Bright Children

The Association for Bright Children, Halton Chapter, will host a meeting Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at Lord Elgin High School. The program will feature Margaret Walker, ABC Ontario, speaking on the current state of gifted and enrichment education in Ontario and offering her views on what the new NDP government may mean to gifted education. For more information, call Diane Leblovic at 632-4892 or Trudy Olsen at 681-2890.

Mature individuals

Halton Support Services is looking for mature individuals who are interested in contract positions, working 4-15 hours/week teaching life skills to children with developmental handicaps. Instruction takes place in the child's home. If you are 18 or older, call 416-849-8000 for more information.
