NEILSON'S LEAGUE

Bowler of the Week: Albert O'Meara 751 (277). High Scores: Greg Fletcher 686 (244), Derek Edwardson 684 (266).

SENIORS: Wow!! All the seniors needed to hear was that it was beat the coach week, and they bowled up a storm!

Leading the way was Robert Harrison, as he bowled his seventh 700 game in eight weeks, with a 732 (315). Not far behind was Brian Bell who rolled his third 700 triple in as many weeks, 729 (315). Following the men along was Sharon Shapcott! Sharon wowed them all as she bowled a 710 (301).

Rounding out the top scores were: Eddie Doyle 698 (313), Dave Ridley 693 (258), Joey Robichaud 688 (282), Laura Doyle 671 (283), Mark Prevost 685 (271), Tonya Morris 638 (211), Jason Ogdan 630 (251), and pulling up the end was Christina Lane 616 (232).

All the senior bowlers had little trouble when it came to beating their masters, but everyone had fun.

Hopefully all bowlers will be able to keep up their form as qualifying is quickly approaching for the Four Steps to Stardom Tournament!

The members of the Senior League, along with coaches Ralph Miller and Dee Dee Haynes, would like to wish Joey Robichaud good luck as he prepares for the Senior Mixed Tourney!

"SPILLING THE PINS" AT ACTON LANES
853-0170

COMING SOON: Acton Lanes Handicap Doubles Tournament Sunday, Dec. 2 - 7 p.m. Our first doubles tournament of the season is limited to 18 teams, with a prize list of over $500 for the five game tournament. Register early to avoid missing out on a great tournament.

GOOD LUCK TO: All Acton YABA bowlers who will be competing in the Streetsville Bowl YABA tournament on Nov. 23-25.

NOTICE TO YBC BOWLERS: Our chocolate almond sales drive is winding up, so if you have any outstanding money collected, please bring it to the lanes this weekend.

CONGRATULATIONS TO: Acton bowler Dave Mills who competed in the zone finals of the Hiram Walker League Executive Tournament on Nov. 18 and emerged as zone champion in the League Secretaries Division. Dave will next be competing at the Provincial Finals in Waterloo on Jan. 26. A "316" in his first game of the three game tournament in Guelph, helped Dave earn his victory. Congratulations and good luck at the Provincials.
