

DARTS

by ALEX TOUGH

Firstly, next Sunday (25th) at the Legion sees Darts Ontario hosting the North section of Halton opening tourney of the season with mixed doubles and ladies and mens singles. Doubles registration by 11:00 am and singles registration by 1:00 pm.

The Legion's Fred Gilmer trophy was contested last Saturday and the winners, after a three way playoff, are Ron Scarlett and Beau Beaumont. This is the lads fourth consecutive win. Second place went to the new and old/young squad of Roy Rudiger/Gord Bottoms and third spot holders are Ged Williams/self. The three teams qualified with identical 8-2 records in the round robin of 11 teams, quite a strong entry compared to recent years.

On Tuesday night the team of Ray Clarke leads the way with 48 points with Chris Johnson's team following with 41 and Wendy Cotton teamsters with 40. High ladies is Emily Sargent, 133, men is Mike Hope, 160. High finish goes to Brian Corning, 91, and Kelly Curtis, 74.

Monday's Halton league leaders remain George & Dragon #2 after a 14-0 win over Copper Kettle #2, who were short a couple of players. Ron Scarlett's two 130 plus scores were the only extra points. McGibbon #1 hold on to 2nd place with a close finish at O'Tooles #2 taking the last teams game for an 8-6 win. Jeff Henderson finished 112. Frank Fernades (3), Rick Harden (2), Gary Rodda (2), Hunter Carroll, Dave Nicholls, Ron Duval and Hank Van Gogh all scored 140 & over. Time Out are third and another narrow win, 8-6, over George & Dragon #1 who dropped the teams games for the loss. John Colter shot 180 and Vic Lovell claimed a high finish. High scores recorded by Rick Rintzema (2), Rob Marrows (2), Ed Paterson (2), and by Grant Richardson, Al Murphy, Ken Gritten, Joyce Marrows, Tony Marrows and John Colter.

Copper Kettle #1 were also shorthanded and went down 5-9 at George & Dragon. Pete Conway closed 110 and high scores came from Graham Gove, Ray Porter and Dan Hall. Meanwhile Mike Pepper threw 180 and 145 with Mike Finn 132 in beating the McGibbon lassies by 14-0.

Wednesday night this week puts teams doubles on show and players are reminded to register by 8:15 pm. Last Wednesday league play as usual and heading the first division are Snowjacks Hustlers after a maximum 9-0 win over luckless Ensigns, who could not finish. Ron Scarlett had five starts and four closes. Rod Beaumont fired 134 and Beau Beaumont 140. Al Murphy opened 93 and Roy Rudiger had four opens. Gasketman Cutter's 5-4 win over Bulldogs keep them in 2nd place.

Second division leaders lost for the second week in a row, 4-5. The winner are Aces who put in a team effort for the win. Bruce Stevens opened four and Glen Monaghan finished 4 & 2. Taxmen leap into second place with a 6-3 win over the Bandits. Cam Lavers, Paul Karolidis and Roger Moore scored high as did Harry X for Bandits. Inter County continued good results with a 6-3 win over Independents. Jim Franks went 3-3 with 100. The 'dummy' played well for County. Ace Bailey had a 91 finish and scored 140 in Firemen's 5-4 victory over Outlaws.

Atoms extend streak to four with win over Grand Valley

Acton Hinds Peewees skated to their fourth straight win on Tuesday, Oct. 30 with a hard fought 4-3 win over Grand Valley.

After a scoreless first period Grand Valley opened the scoring, but Jason Lowrie tied the game assisted by Dwayne Reynolds. Acton took the lead on a goal by Greg Richmond assisted by McKinnon and Gengler.

After Grand Valley took the lead, Roy Stuckless came back to score two straight goals, both assisted by Jones and Lowrie. Scott Glass played an excellent game in goal making many fine saves.

Acton's fifth win, a 6-2 triumph over Fergus on Tuesday, Nov. 6, came as a result of a hard checking effort. The score was tied 1-1 after the first period.

Scoring for Acton was Dwayne Reynolds from Jones and Stuckless. Stuckless scored the next two goals, both assisted by McGregor and Jones. The fourth goal came from the same line with Jones scoring assisted by Stuckless and McGregor.

The fifth was scored by Marty McKinnon from Gengler and Richmond, while the last Acton goal was McGregor from Stuckless and Jones. Acton received excellent goaltending from Brian Denny.
