BARB STEPHENS/Weekend

Teacher and choirmaster Laurie McEwan rehearses with a small group of George Kennedy School students before the over 70 strong choir performs at their Christmas concert Monday evening.

Super Sunday Series tickets make good stocking stuffers

Good seats are still available for the three-concert Super Sunday Series. What's more... priced at only $10 for the final two concerts, they make great stocking stuffers!

Sponsored by the Georgetown Club of the Canadian Federation of University Women, the Super Sunday Series program features a wide variety of entertainment for children aged three to 10 years.

The second concert, Join Hands puppetry, begins the new year with 1:30 and 3:30 shows on Sunday, January 13, 1991. The final show on March 3, 1991, at 1:30 and 3:30, is a one-man clown act entitled "Morgan's Journey."

All Super Sunday Series shows are held at the John Elliott Theatre and tickets are available from Penniesworth, or by calling 877-6140 or 877-5373.

Cabaret show

The Halton branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association is sponsoring a performance of "The Fantasticks" on April 25, 1991, with proceeds going to the association. A cabaret-style production which will provide entertainment for the whole family, tickets are $17.50 each and suggested as a Christmas present. For more information, call 845- 5044.

Art show

Staff at the Halton Roman Catholic School Board is holding an art show and sale at the Centennial Gallery, Burlington Central Library, Dec. 7 to 22. Hours of the exhibit are Monday to Friday 7 to 9 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday 1 to 5 p.m.
