

Blind draw in mixed doubles darts league highlights

Halton League, Monday, December 10, mixed doubles night in a blind draw. The diversity of standard of player was well determined when one male player drew a young lady who had never played the game before. As it was, some other good pairings came through. At the time of putting the column together details of most individual scorings are not available. Mike Sinnaeve shot 180 and Brad Youmans fired 140 and 135 in the same match. Ian McDonald and I could not hit a double to save our life.

Coming through the four round robin groups were the doubles of Paul Kirby/Dave Paterson; Brad Youmans/Roger Vanderham; Stan Rhynold/Bruce Stevens and Pete Pickering/Marcus Noel - none of these slouches. Well, Rhynold/Stevens took out Youmans/Vanderham and Kirby/Paterson shot down Pickering/Noel. The final was a mixed bag of good and not so good darts with the tandem of Kirby/Paterson coming out on top.

The tourney was switched to McGibbon at the last moment and was held in the rear banquet room with several volunteers installing and removing the boards. Thanks all round to all who assisted.

Wednesday, December 12, Industrial League at the Legion saw league play as usual. In the second division Bandits keep, only they would wish to, their enviable record of yet to win a match. This past week the team managed only one set from the one above placed Outlaws. Most of the team enjoy themselves nevertheless, the name of their game. For Outlaws, only their second win of the season. Cam Herman opened 87 and scored 100, Todd Axford also scoring 100. Alex Bowie opened four and Bruce McCartney opened three.

Third bottom Independents lost 3-6 to Aces, who move into second place. John Burke opened four, closed three, scored a 105 start and 140 for a good match and was supported by Lloyd Westlake's 140. In reply Independents could only muster tons by Jim Franks and Jim Watson - not forgetting the handicap of the dummy. Top of the table Acadian Pools rolled along with a win of 6-3 over Inter County. Glen Monaghan had four starts, Dan Fraser scored 174. Taxmen dropped a couple of places following the 3-6 loss to strong showing Firemen. Graham Griffiths and Gord Inglis shot 100 and Rob Quinton 117.

Bottoms of the first division Panthers took Steeprock by 6-3 in a fast played match. Jim Carter opened four and Paul Kirby opened four. Ian McDonald scored 140. Meanwhile, Bulldogs and Ensigns fought to a one point match in favor of Bulldogs. 'Dogs took the last four in a row in an amazing come back. Russ Deigle scored 133 and Al Murphy popped 121 and 103. Harry Bottoms opened four. A similar match went on the next board between Westenders and High Rollers. In this case 'Enders' comeback bad was thwarted by Rollers' Derek Hedley's 53 open and 95 finish for the win. Hunter Carroll opened 102, Eric Fuller scored 125 and 101 and Brian Hicks shot 125.

The final match was a classic - a classic bust! It should have been a well fought battle with the two teams involved, Snowjacks Hustlers and Gasketman Cutters. Both teams bombed in finishing and starting with only the occasional scoring to lighten the load. As it was the sets went two at a time to each side with the very first set being crucial. Hustlers' Beau Beaumont began with 102 and closed eight for the win and this proved to be the winner with all others breaking even. Rod Beaumont opened 160, the highest of the season to date and topped 140 to go with his two opens and closes. Ron Scarlett scored 140 and 100, closing 98 for the last set finish. Rick Harden opened three, one of 66. Randy began the first set with 108 and closed out two. Not a match to set the heather on fire.

Some future news for the calendar. The Halton League will not play on Christmas and New Year's Eves. This Wednesday the Industrial League has league play and the following week hosts the annual pre-Christmas Alfie Oates Memorial Team Tourney.
