Church services

Omitted by error in Wednesday's edition which outlined Christmas services in the churches were those at St. John's, Stewarttown and St. Stephen's, Hornby.

Church services at St. John's, Stewarttown are at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, December 23 with a 7 p.m. service on Christmas Eve, December 24.

St. Stephen's, Hornby has the Sunday School Christmas pageant at 11:15 a.m. on Sunday. A midnight Eucharist will be celebrated at 11 p.m. Christmas Eve with a Family Eucharist at 10 a.m. on Christmas morning.

There was also an error in the listing for Trinity United Church in Acton. The morning service on Sunday is at 10 a.m., not 11 a.m. as listed in the article.

Winners of the Acton Knights of Columbus Christmas draw for Halton Women's Place were:

1st - Lance Morin, Acton; 2nd - H. Joyce, Acton; 3rd - J. Smitz; 4th - Gail McLaren, Toronto; 5th - Zandra Tibbitts, Acton.

Proceeds of the draw went to Halton Women's Place and the building fund.

At the Georgetown Christian School concert, old Gramma Nellie (Joy Walraven) is surprised to learn her tree ornaments can talk to her as she spends a Christmas alone. The ornaments, (from left) Tina Tinsel (Christina Mulder), Angelina the Angel (Michelle Lubbers), Major Popcorn (Ryan Vanderwal), Striper (Matthew Andrews), and Blinker (Matthew Keep) reminded Gramma Nellie of past Christmas memories.

The Prince of Peace will return to rule the world

When Jesus was born, the angels announced that He would bring peace to the earth¹. "Where is this peace?" an anxious world cries. "We have had nothing but wars for the past 2,000 years since the angels' proclamation!"

Even though the era since Jesus' birth has been marked by external violence and hatred, a very unusual thing has happened. Millions of individuals have claimed to have found true peace by inviting Jesus' resurrected Spirit to live within them. The kingdom of heaven has already been established within their hearts!

What, then, did Jesus mean when He said, "I came not to send peace, but a sword"². He simply meant that there would be much opposition to those who preached the gospel as He had commanded³.

Jesus foretold troublesome times of wars, famines, earthquakes and pestilences before His return to rule the earth⁴. There can be no external peace until the Prince of Peace himself rules externally as well as internally.

There are many prophecies in the Bible yet to be fulfilled, and we can be assured they will all take place exactly as predicted because of the 100 per cent accuracy of Biblical prophecy in the past. We know the removal of God's people will not take place until the gospel is preached throughout the world⁵ and unless there is first a great "falling away"⁶. Both of these are being fulfilled today as television beams the gospel into remote areas of the world, and many Christians are falling into New Age doctrines. The Jews are pouring back into their homeland of Israel just as the prophets foretold long ago⁷. Our newscasts speak of a coming one-world government and central world economy, and we hold our breath.

It is easier to believe that a human will rule the world than it is to believe that Jesus Christ will return to rule it. As we see Israel in the centre of the world news, we realize we are approaching the midnight hour before the antichrist will appear. Let us not be deceived; he is not the true Messiah, but only His forerunner.
