UCW, spouses enjoy a Yule party

By BETTY SOJKA

About 28 or so UCW members and their spouses went to the Emporium Restaurant in Georgetown on Tuesday, December 18. Here a regular business meeting was conducted as well as Christmas celebrations were enjoyed by all including a turkey dinner.

Gertrude Shortill and Margaret Jamieson gave the devotion. A highlight of the evening was the skit put on by Joyce Clarke, and Alma Sinclair. The group made use of the piano at the restaurant, and sang many songs. Brian and Alyson Arsenaault delighted all by singing a few Christmas songs. It was a wonderful evening for all attending.

Friends and neighbors travelled to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, on Thursday, December 20 for a night of carolling. This annual event is a tradition that was started many years ago by Mr. Martin's father. Every year Mr. Martin carries on the tradition by having a night in December for carolling.

Another annual happening in the village is the Christmas Eve service held at the United Church. With a starting time of 7:30 p.m.

children are able to accompany their parents making it very much a family affair. All attending got great pleasure from the voices of the choir, as they sang an assortment of Christmas hymns.

The December edition of the Ballinafad Monthly Newsletter has now been mailed out. Sponsors for 1991 editions starting with January's are very much needed. The cost is just 100 postage stamps, which of course is increasing in cost as of January 1. If you can help it would be very much appreciated. Please call Betty Sojka at 853-3691.

The Glen Eden Ski School is busy preparing for the upcoming season. Since the first week of October, over 100 instructors have been involved in pre-season training and development. Here ski school director John Leeming instructs some students. It is anticipated over 50,000 lessons will be given this season. Glen Eden is situated at the Kelso Conservation Area, 1 1/2 miles west of Milton.

Last Thursday 7th Georgetown East, Brownies, 4th Georgetown Pathfinders, and 1st Georgetown Scouts sang Christmas Carols for the residents at the Bennett Centre. Steve Thompson accompanied on the guitar.

Asthma

There are approximately 1-million asthmatics in Canada. Asthma restricts the activities of adults and children alike, but conducted by the Lung Association — Halton Region are helping families cope with children who have asthma. Call the Lung Association — Halton Region for more information at 632-8499.
